Dear Mrs. Street:—
What a happy thought! I think it was splendid of you, and Mrs. Gifford to be able to collect sufficient to endow a bed, in the Duchess of Connaught's Canadian Hospital, for our men, and it gives me great pleasure, to add to my now complete list the name of "All Saints Church, St. Andrews." Next week it will be published. The hearty response to the call has been a delight to me during the last few weeks, and I know at headquarters (Toronto) they cannot but think New Brunswick has done well. The first of the week I intend sending the amount of the fully subscribed beds,

Yours sincerely

OBITUARY

MR, WILLIAM CARLETON

By the death, Tuesday morning, April 13. of Mr. William Carleton, at 239 City Road, St. John lost one of its oldest and most highly esteemed residents. In his younger days he carried on the blockmaking business with his brother Robert, near fhe ferry floats. On June 19, 1865, when the provincial administration had charge of the customs, he was appointed locker. After 39 years of faithful service he was superannuated in 1904. His asso ciates in the Custom House showed their appreciation of his many excellent qual ities by presenting him on his retiremen with a gold-headed cane. The presenta tion was made on behalf of the officials by Hon. A. T. Dunn, collector of the port, in the collector's room, in a graceful speech, to which the recipient made a suitable reply. The deceased was born in St. John on Nov. 20, 1831, and is sur vived by his wife, formerly Miss Bridge O'Connor, three sons and one daughter-old St. Michael's Hall. Until recent years

Mr. Carleton was a familiar figure or Prince William Street. Affable and courtous with all he met, one was always sure of a pleasant salutation from the custom The funeral took place on Thursday morning, and the very large gathering of friends testified to the regard in which the deceased was held in St. John. After an illness of many weeks, which she bore with Christian fortitude, Mrs. Mary L. Lambert, wife of Simeon Lam-April 11, at her home in Stuart Town, to the regret of her many friends. Mrs. ambert was born in North Alton, Kings Co., N. S., seventy-three years ago, and was the daughter of the late Richard the late Brenton H. Dodge, M. P. P. She was a woman of many fine traits of character. Her life was spent in doing kind and generous acts to those in need and equiring help. She is survived by McLaughlin, and Miss Irene at home. On Tuesday afternoon the body was laid laughter. The floral tributes were many and beautiful. The funeral service was iducted by Rev. Charles Brown (evangelist), and was largely attended, for she was loved by all.
