

USE

"Corona" Dry Arsenate of Lead

for Spraying Orchards and Potato Plants.
"CORONA" dry is not an experiment, it has been used by many of our leading farmers for years.
One pound of "CORONA" will do the work of from two to three pounds of Arsenate Paste, and be more effective because:—
It is a perfect, dry, fine white powder, and does not contain 50 per cent water.
It is pure and contains nothing but Lead Oxide and Arsenate Oxide, the only two chemicals essential of an Arsenate of Lead.
It gives an even application, covers more thoroughly, and sticks to foliage longer.
It mixes easily and readily in water, no working up to prepare for the spray tank. No straining. It is only necessary to shake the proportional amount into the spray tank.
By using the same weight each time you spray, your mixture is always the same strength.
No sediment, no lumps, no water, never clogs spray nozzles.

ESMERALDA AT PASTIME THEATRE SATURDAY, JULY 1st

Two Performances—Afternoon 3. Evening at 8 o'clock

Proceeds will be divided between the 193rd Sporting Club and the Brigade.

The below clipping is from the Westville Free Lance and needs no further comment from us:

The four act play "Esmeralda" drew a crowded house at Westville last evening and the general opinion seems to be that it was one of the best amateur plays ever staged in Westville.

The play was well balanced throughout. "Esmeralda" was taken by Mrs. Murdoch who is recognized as an artist. The part was difficult in this respect that the unsophisticated country girl developed into a polished educated young lady but Mrs. Murdoch proved her adaptability by playing the respective roles admirably. Miss Kitty Gray took the part of Mrs. Rogers a cross old lady who had no hesitation in saying what she thought and did the part splendidly. Miss Hilda Moss was Nora Desmond, a demure young lady and her younger sister Kate Desmond (a butter-in) was admirably taken by Miss Buda Campbell. Mert McKenzie excelled himself in the double role of George Drew real estate man, etc., and the Marquis. Mr. J. C. Murdoch showed himself the well intentioned father as Mr. Rogers. Ira Goode was the leading man in the character of David Hardy, and made love to Esmeralda in a manner which showed he is no novice at that sort of thing. Mr. Stewart Murdoch played the part of a lover in the role of Mr. Estabrooks.

The plot was good throughout, and the interest was sustained from the rise of the curtain until it fell at the close of the last act by admirable acting on the part of the entire cast. Mrs. Murdoch as Director has every reason to be proud of the way in which the actors did their respective parts.

The musical specialties were much enjoyed. The Orpheus quartette, New Glasgow, Messrs Al. Matheson, Henry Ross, Archie Ross and George McDonald were heartily encored, and the same may be said of the mixed quartette, the Misses Florence McLeod and Agnes McQuigley and Messrs. Rod McLeod and John G. McKenzie. Messrs. McLeod and McKenzie also rendered solos in a way that evoked hearty applause.

An orchestra consisting of Mrs. Benvie, Miss Florence McLeod, Mr. Brenton Miller and Mr. Norrie Grant played a number of selections and assisted materially in making the play such a pronounced success.

Last but not least was the dancing of little Miss Mary Talbot, who was dressed in sailor costume and gave a hornpipe dance in a way that brought forth repeated encores. This little lady also dances the Highland dances most artistically, and will be heartily welcomed by a Westville audience at any time. Westville Free Lance.
