LOCAL NEWS

Miss Margaret Barss of Lunenburg Co. is visiting friends at Aylesford and Middleton.

The Exhibition at Bridgewater took place this week, Sept. 27th—29th.

Queens County Exhibition will be held at Caledonia, Oct. 3rd and 4th.

Benjamin Burgoyne of New Ross died Sept. 25th, aged 94 years and 5 months.

Laurie C. Woodworth of Summerland, B. C., a former resident of Aylesford was recently accidentally shot and killed in British Columbia.

Mr. Robert States now of Mt. Denson has been visiting his home and farm in Centreville and was warmly welcomed by his friends.

Mrs. W. S. Woodworth who has been giving a series of very enjoyable afternoon teas was again "At Home" to a number of her friends on Wednesday last.

Lieut. John Stairs, of Halifax, a son of the late George Stairs, the fifth member of the Stairs family has died in the country's cause. The only surviving son of this family is Lieut. Dennis Stairs recently wounded.

Mrs. Arthur Fowler of Brookline, Mass., arrived Wednesday and will spend two or three weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Palmeter of Billtown.

Mr. J. Everett Kinsman, M. P., of Centreville has received word that his son, Mr. M. E. Kinsman, who was wounded Sept. 5th, while in active service, overseas, returned to duty again September 18th. The wound was in the shoulder caused by a shrapnel shell. This will be good news for his many friends.

Mrs. Simpson, wife of late Rev. D. H. Simpson is visiting Mrs. F. W. Verge in Bars' Corner, Lunenburg Co. She gave an address in the Baptist church there Sunday evening on the Panama Canal. Mrs. Simpson spent some months in the Canal zone, was a passenger on the first steamer which went thru the canal after the great slide. Her talk, which she illustrated with chalk sketches on a blackboard, was most interesting.

Rev. Wm. Owen of the W. O. C., 219th Battalion, Camp Aldershot, will preach in the Disciple Church, Port Williams, Sunday evening, October 1st. Special music by the "Purple Feather Quartette." Rev. R. T. Russell will also sing a solo. Don't miss this opportunity of hearing these talented men on their last visit to our village before going overseas.

Mr. Charles H. Ellis of Valley Falls, Rhode Island came to this County on Monday last and is spending a short vacation with his sister, Mrs. Owen Strong of Cornwallis and Mr. Lewis Ellis of Kentville. Mr. Ellis is accompanied by a friend Mr. Edward F. Dunn of Valley Falls. They expect to return on Saturday. Mr. Ellis worked here with Mr. Tom Cox and left Kings Co. for the United States in 1884. Mr. Ellis is interested in his native County and what it is doing for the cause of the Empire. He will visit Camp Aldershot before returning.
