

CHANGE IN POWER PLAN.

Mayor Upholds His Course in Favor of Secret Meetings.

Sewer Trench on the Mountain Flooded Once More.

Another change of plans about dealing with the power question has been made. It was the intention to have considered the matter at a special session to-night, but it has finally been agreed to deal with the matter at the regular council meeting on Monday night.

The Police Commissioners still refuse to discuss their verdict at the dark lantern session on Wednesday afternoon, when they investigated the story that a police officer had offered Mrs. Henry Buswell $100 to withdraw a charge against a man accused of assaulting her husband.

The Mayor stated that had it not been for a report in a morning paper that the board had entirely exonerated the officer he would have said nothing yesterday. "I want to give the people every liberty to believe that they have friends at court when they come to make a complaint. I believe the people want results, and I am willing to do anything I can to give them that."

The excavations for the sewerage system on the mountain top were pumped cut yesterday. The storm last night flooded them again, and the pump was at work again to-day.

A building permit has been issued to J. Orr Callaghan for a brick dwelling at the corner of Homewood and Kent streets, to cost $3,500. Charles Kidd has the contract.

OAK HALL.

Men Should Ask Them For Pointers on Dress.

With but a single month of spring remaining and summer, or at least the warm days that make one think of summer and outings, soon to come, there has been a gradual discarding of the winter suit for a lighter material by the men, and not a few have been delighted with the really up-to-date goods shown at the leading store for men for several decades—Oak Hall. It is to this great house that so much credit is due for the latest styles, and an appreciation of what is authentic for men to wear on all occasions.

Majurec had evidently died from the loss of blood after the stab wound had been inflicted.

The steamboat City of Montreal, of the Mutual line, had some difficulty in making a landing at the city dock this morning. In trying to throw the stern end around to the dock, a line gave way, allowing the boat to swing out, and which nearly caused her to get in the shallow water. Owing to the heavy load she was carrying she was drawing fourteen feet of water.

ANOTHER DENIAL IN CAILLE CASE.

(Continued from Page 1.) in order to get the story in Canadian papers and give it an appearance of truth, although it is declared that he knew all the time that it was all fake.

KNOWN BY NAME OF BELL.

The news adds: It is not generally known that throughout the Kinrade inquest, just concluded, Miss Florence Kinrade has been travelling under the name of Miss Bell—or possibly it would be nearer the truth to say that the whole family, including Clair Montrose Wright, have been travelling under cover of that abbreviated cognomen. The fact has just leaked out.

Miss Kinrade's trunk bears the name "Miss Bell," in large and prominent lettering on the top. So noticeable is it, in fact, that it attracts attention merely on account of its size, and causes people to look twice at the owner, with the expectation of seeing some actress of rising fame, or some new star in the theatrical firmament.

LIQUOR CASE.

Constables Make Raid in Brant in Search of Liquor.

New Separate School—Memorial of Agnes Purves.

(Special Despatch to the Times.)

Brantford, May 7.—On what his lawyer considered pretty meagre evidence, Robert D. Campbell, proprietor of the Commercial Hotel, was fined $75 and costs for selling liquor at his hotel on Sunday last. Magistrate Livingston said he was convinced, however, that a sale had been made, when Sgt. Donnelly stepped into the hotel went upstairs and discovered a number of empty beer bottles in the bathroom, and a couple of unfinished drinks. The occupants of the bath room, according to the officer, were just coming out, but all swore they secured no drinks. Mr. Campbell, the proprietor, has intimated that he will appeal the case.

AFTER LIQUOR.

Batson's and Proper's places on the Burford and Paris roads were visited. At a foreign joint on Dalhousie street, fruit wine and hard cider samples were, it is said, gathered in for analysis. It is stated that prosecutions will be entered for the liquor license department, Toronto.

UNHAPPY FRANCE.

Government Employees Form Syndicate to Fight the Ministry.

Labour Will Try to Place Government at Its Mercy.

Paris, May 7.—Both public sympathy and the law seem to-day to be clearly against the Post, Telegraph and Telephone Employees' Association, which yesterday threw down the gauge of battle to the government by transforming itself into a syndicate, or union, under the laws of 1884. This action placed the association on the same footing as the workmen's unions, and was calculated to give it the right to strike against its employer, the state.

The newspapers this morning, with the exception of the extreme Socialist organs, are unsparing in their denunciation of the step taken by the association as an act of rebellion, and they urge the government to proceed with energy and crush the insurrection before the movement engulfs the other categories of state employees.

Evidence accumulates to-day that the formation of this union yesterday was only the first step of a far reaching plan of the general Federation of Labor to take the entire machinery of the government at its mercy.

The law of 1884 limits unions to professions and trade engaged in "competitive industry," and the attorney-general of the republic is expected to decide summarily that the syndicate is illegal and to order its dissolution. As soon as this is done the organizers
