LESSONS.

An open meeting of the Lodge will be held here this evening. Admission free, but a silver collection will be taken up to defray expenses.

The teamsters say the 22nd Feb. was the best sleighing of the season. Joe Cook's fine bays drew to the sawmill at Dunlop a load of logs six in number, two being 20-ft. in length, measuring altogether 1040 ft., being the best record of the season.

Friday last the genial Dunlop architect and two Salford sportsmen, with the jovial commodore, enjoyed a day's sport. The keen frost deterred the scent from the hounds, so that only five rabbits were shot.

The annual meeting of the congregation of the Presbyterian church will be held Monday evening.
By a printer's error the name of D.
Cumming was inserted last week in connection with the management of the social hop on Commercial-st. The name should have been D. Carney. The architect's sporting proclivities run to quoting, and not to the exhibition of the "light fantastic."

Our medico had a visit from a brother med. from Toronto last week, and had an interesting discussion on the alma mater. He was also out for a drive with the Dunlop scribe, taking Joe to inspect a quilt that was on the frame, and made by a goodwife and a maiden in a day and a half, and is far ahead of the Dunlop one reported. They also fulfilled an important promise by a call. More anon.

SCOTCH'S STORY.—The morning saw only the caretaker, librarian and one Sunday-school scholar by the side of the store in the schoolroom. Punctual to the minute for holding the Bible class Ray, Mr. Black drove in from Goderich with Hector Ray, the former remarking that he had for 36 years had a country charge, and had always been in time, wind or weather never preventing him.
The kirk bell was rung, and answered by eleven persons, two ladies being among the number. At the close of the service the pastor said he was sorry to say that he had been unexpectedly called to Hamilton, and could not, on that account, visit among the parishioners this week.

The election contest in this ward was sternly fought out. 104 voters marked their ballots, the result being a victory for Cameron, 52 for Porter, and 2 apportioned to the Reform. The interests of the candidate were faithfully looked after by D. Cummings and R. Fuford, and Conservatism was upheld by A. Allan and J. Campbell. The officials were R.
Williams, R. O. St. G. Williams, not clerk, J. D. McManus, constable. Exactly five-fifths of the number of votes on the list were polled. In the election of 1882, Porter obtained a majority of 17 in this ward out of a polled vote of 84 on a list of 105. The Reform gain is attributable to the organization of the section and the indomitable work put in on election day by the commodore, who was indefatigable from morning to evening in hauling voters to the poll.

A TRYING SORROW.—The winsome maiden of this section sorrow and will not be comforted because they are not able to shake hands with some of the handsome lords of creation in the around our clavian, and for the following reasons. One prominent and popular bachelor had his hand injured by a kick from an equine; the tail laid also got one of his "bunch of fives" jammed between two logs, to such an extent that he has been compelled to "hang up his hiddle and his bow" for the time being; and a few weeks ago Joe Cook opened his palm with an axe. The wound was dressed by one of our local medics, and is doing well, and the patient is now getting along finely. Even though the bachelors were tempted to give their hearts to the fair ones, they cannot at present give their hands.
