P. E. I. POTATOES.

Our late advices by mail and wire state that the Potato Crop at P. E. I. this season is a partial failure, and only about half of last year's yield can safely be counted upon. In addition to this fact the P. E. I. Government have large orders in hand for the British and French Armies and as a consequence much higher prices are naturally expected. We were lucky in securing

Distinguished Visitor in Town.

Yesterday we received the following wire:
 "COMING ON TRAIN TO-DAY. CAN YOU PUT ME UP?"
 To which we replied:
 "WILL PUT YOU UP IN OUR WINDOW. YOUR OLD FRIENDS WILL WELCOME YOU."
 F. SMALLWOOD.

He came, and he is now standing in our window, where he will receive visitors every day from 8.30 a.m. to 9 p.m., and on Saturday to 10 p.m. HE is surrounded by a great display of the famous BEAR BRAND Boots and Shoes which gained so much popularity last winter. Neat in shape, durable in construction, reasonable in price, BEAR BRAND Rubbers are the rubbers to buy. See them in our window and then come in and examine them.
