The steam canal-boats on the Erie are represented as doing well and gaining favor every day. While as a rule a large number of boats are lying idle, the steamers are positively embarrassed with offers of freight. The saving in time is the great attraction.

It is stated that the Northern Colonization Railway Company have determined on an immediate and conclusive survey of the route to be pursued on the extension of the line from Aymer to the Matawa, and that arrangements to this end are almost complete.

Some leading French journals, among them the Journal des Debats, are urging the recognition of the Spanish Republic, the ground taken being the inadvisability of allowing Germany to take the initiative in the matter.

Mr. Smalley writes to the Tribune that there is finally to be a statue to Oliver Cromwell. "The greatest of Englishmen," he says "or at any rate, of English rulers, has not hitherto been much honored by monuments of any kind in the country he once delivered from the tyranny of popes and priests."

Rifle shooting on the English plan has become all the rage in New York, and daily the valiant sharpshooters of the "National Guard" practice at the butts on the Creedmoor range.

Messrs. Goldie, McCullough & Co., of Galt, Ont., have been awarded the contract for supplying the Parliamentary buildings with four new boilers, at a sum of $1,874.

BOY DROWNED AT MEAFORD.—As two little boys, sons of Mr. Elliott Thompson, of Meaford, were bathing in the river on Saturday afternoon, the eldest boy, George, aged eight years, got beyond his depth, and was drowned. The boy was shortly afterwards recovered, but he was extinct.
