[Associated Press.]

Cincinnati, March 30. — John J. Kling, the premier catcher of the Chicago National team, will be installed in organized baseball upon his payment of a fine of $700, according to the decision of the National commission, made public today.

The decision was signed by Chairman August Herrmann and Thomas J. Lynch, president of the National League. B. B. Johnson, president of the American League, did not sign. The commission will require Chas.

W. Murphy, president of the Chicago Nationals, to show cause why son Bell, relict of the late Robert Bell, the violation of rule 47, which forbids a club to submit a new contract to an ineligible player.

Furthermore, the Chicago Nationals will not be allowed to trade, sell or release Kling for one season, nor will it be permitted to pay Kling's fine, directly or indirectly, under a "severe"

Why He Was Fined. Kling was not fined for his failure to report to the Chicago club, nor for the violation of his contract, but solely for his connection with the Missouri Athletic Club's semi-professional team of Kansas City, and his playing with and against ineligible players during the time he was with that club.

Kling was fined $200 for "his action with reference to his connection with the Missouri Athletic Club, and particularly in permitting an ineligible player (Fraser) to participate in games with that club."

He will also be required to pay a had gone there to visit relatives, and fine of $200 for his violation of rule Junior II. Class—Elmore McNiece died suddenly from the bursting of a 47, and $300 additional for his viola-Junior II. Class—Fimore McNiece State Stat
