MUST CALL HALT

City Will Have To Retrench On Improvement Policy Now.

BIG BILLS ARE PENDING

Year's Work Will Total 9 1-2 Mills, Declares City Clerk S. Baker.

City Clerk Baker has drawn the attention of the board of works to the necessity of calling a halt on pavements and other local improvements.

"The work now under way," he said, will take 31/2 mills on next year's tax rate, and the school board's work will take another 91/2, so there is 19, to say nothing of all the other necessities."

The city clerk is preparing a report showing the tremendous jump in local improvement work since 1910.

"In addition to what is being done," "you will have to consider pavements, sidewalks, etc., from the new annexed district, and that will be a big
