The statement that about two-thirds of the exportable surplus of the Canadian wheat crop has already been sold and exported through the medium of the Canadian wheat board is believed to be approximately correct, although exact figures are not available here.

PUBLIC MUST SETTLE.

Toronto, Dec. 29.—The public will pay higher for bread, but neither the millers nor the bakers will lose money, by the advance ordered by the Canadian wheat board, from $2.30 to $2.80 per bushel, in store at terminal elevators. This is the opinion given today by Headley Shaw of the Headley Shaw Milling Company.

"We have been expecting an advance like this for some time now," said Mr. Shaw. "Wheat now is worth even more than the price on the other side of the bakers will raise the price of four, then the bakers will raise the price of four, then the bakers will raise the price of four, then the bakers will raise the price of four, then the bakers will raise the price of four, then the bakers will raise the price of four, then the bakers will raise the price of four, then the bakers will raise the price of four, then the bakers will raise the price of four, then the bakers will raise the price of four, then the bakers will raise the price of four, then the bakers will raise the price of four, then the bakers will raise the price of bread. The Montcalm returned to North Sydney yesterday afternoon, and her master, Captain John Hearn, reported that it was impossible to break through the barrier of ice that is encircling Belle Isle. The minister of marine has instructed the Montcalm to bunker at top speed and then take to sea again. It is not known what route the Montcalm will next attempt, but the only accessible road to Belle Isle at this late season is for the Montcalm to go around working Newfoundland, get into the Atlantic, and try to reach the barren island by way of the open sea. Montreal, Dec. 29.—Discussing the raising of the price of Manitoba wheat from $2.30 to $2.80 a bushel, Thomas Williamson of the St. Lawrence Flour Mills Company, said today: "The old price was a good one to the farmer. Speaking from the point of view of a consumer, it seems to me that the many are being sacrificed in the interests of the few. The 6,000,000 Canadian consumers must pay an advanced price for the staff of life for the benefit of a million farmers, who were already receiving a good sum."

dates who are free from all such suspicion.

Speaking on this subject to The Advertiser, Sergt. Fred Young said he was representing many of his comrades when he expressed the following views:

"I have cut loose from the I. L. P. because I feel that there are socialistic tendencies in the party, and my principles as a soldler will not allow me to remain attached to any body which appears to me to be tinged with socialism.

"It has been said by one candidate for the mayoralty, H. B. Ashplant, that Ald, E. S. Little is out to knock the soldiers. This is absolutely unfair and untrue and nearly all veterans feel and know that in Mr. Little they have a loyal friend and ready helper. When the time comes to cast the votes, Mr. Little will get his share, all right."

There is to be a meeting of the G. W. V. A. and Army and Navy Veterans on Tuesday evening, when soldier candidates and some of the labor representatives will be invited to speak. It is said Mr. Ashplant is not to be among the speakers.

Mr. Ashplant was called at his place of business and at his home, but The Advertiser was unable to get in touch with him to obtain his views of the affair.
