Miss Audrey Williams entertained recently at her home, Grey street, when the guest of honor was Miss Velma Wilson, bride-elect of Mr. Houlding, who was presented with an attractive array of miscellaneous gifts. The gifts were arranged prettily in a surprise room, beautifully decorated.

There were quantities of fine carrots, parsnips, cucumbers and cabbage, as well as large and beautiful autumn flowers. Among the latter was a sunflower, which was almost a curiosity, so large was the expanse of the flower.

All the flowers and vegetables were grown at home by the children, who were instructed as to their cultivation by Miss Stevenson. This year's chickens were hatched in the school incubator, and among the exhibits yesterday were several full-grown hens and roosters which had been reared at home by the children, according to rule.

D. J. Ferguson, principal of the school, welcomed parents and guests all afternoon, showing them the fruit of the children's labor with no small pride.

League entertains house of providence gives picnic dinner and concert at North London Institution.

There was many a happy heart at the House of Providence this week, when the members of the Catholic Women's League entertained the inmates at an indoor picnic. Tables beautifully decorated with pink and white asters were laid for two hundred, dainties and flags too made pretty decorations at the dinner table. The guests being served under the able comership of Mrs. T. R. Binder and Mrs. R. H. Dignan.

Following the picnic dinner, an attractive program was presented under the direction of Mrs. William Hoy and Miss Margaret Darcy. Mrs. J. Roach, president of the league, was present to see that everything went as smoothly as possible and to speak a word of welcome to the people of the Home. The committee in charge included representatives of all of the city parishes in the league.

The program included the following: piano selections by Miss P. Dalton and Miss Margaret Haines, vocal solos by Rev. Allen and Jack Orendorf, readings by Mrs. Patrick Clifford, dancing numbers by the Misses Dorothy Donahue, Mary Jo, McKee, and Bobbie Woods, a vocal solo by Miss Alma Connors, and a quartet by the St. Mary's schoolboys. Miss M. Keating acted as accompanist.

The bride wore a lovely gown of white georgette made with gossamer of Spanish lace, and a hat of blonde and silver and her slippers of white kid. She carried a shower bouquet of butterfly roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Margaret Daly of Hamilton, who was her only attendant, was groomed in shell pink georgette with a white lace trim and a blonde and gold picture hat. Her slippers and hose were also in the blonde shade.

ELMA POULTRY SHOW IS LARGEST IN YEARS

Proves One of Features of Annual Fair Held at Atwood.

Special to The Advertiser.

Atwood, Sept. 23.—The Elma fair attracted 2,000 people today. Exhibits of roots and vegetables excelled.

Domestic and ladies' work filled the hall, judges declaring this exhibit exceptionally good. The flower show was well filled.

The poultry exhibit was the largest in years. H. Goddard, of Listowel, captured the sweepstake badge for collection of poultry; C. L. Wynne, of Atwood, the acceptance for collection of chickens, while J. D. Atkins won the special prize for the six best birds of any age or class.

W. A. Dickson, of Elma, captured the cup for the best rooster of any age.

Miss Marion Tanton, bride-elect of early October, has been the raison d'être for a number of attractive functions this week. On Monday, Miss Catherine Cleghorn entertained at a luncheon at the Kennebec, while Miss Jean Chapman was a bridge hostess on Tuesday. Yesterday afternoon, Miss Kitty White was the hostess of a tea and shower at her home on the Ridgeway. Today Miss Connie Givens is entertaining at a luncheon, on Friday, Miss Dorothy Gleason is arranging a tea and shower, and on Saturday, Miss Isabel Tanton is entertaining in honor of her sister.

The Misses Helen Nichol and Betty Dale, both bride-elects of October, were guests of honor at a prettily arranged shower held at the home of Mrs. Frieda Stephens, Waterloo street. Miss Lottie Fisher acting as joint hostess for the event.

Guests were presented with an attractive array of miscellaneous gifts, the idea of a haunted house, and a search being carried out effectively with two ghostly figures as guides in the search. Crispin gladioli decorated the house and the supper table.

The guests included: Misses Edith and Hazel Jones, Carrie Fitchett, Aileen Hamilton, Hazel Stone, Muriel Atkinson, Agnes Alkenhead, Annie Beer, Clara Arkell, Blanche MacKenzie, Mrs. Hazel Stuart and Mrs. James Fleming of Detroit.

A joint party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Snee in honor of Miss Lucy Campbell, the latter's sister who is leaving for England on Saturday evening. Miss Campbell was singing. Miss Sylvia and Miss Dorothy played piano. Miss Campbell presented some very useful presents from the nurses at Victoria Hospital spent recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Galloway, 470 Adelaide street, when a number of their friends took possession of their home. The event took the form of a surprise party in honor of the 24th anniversary of the host and hostess and they were presented with an anniversary cake and games, music and cards, after which a very delightful luncheon was served.

At the close of the meeting, supper was served and a social half hour spent chatting with the guests of honor.

BOYLE CHILDREN EXHIBIT PRODUCE

City School Is Scene of Little Autumn Fair—Parents Attend.

It was almost a harvest festival which the children of the Boyle Memorial school held yesterday. The day was the occasion of the annual exhibit of garden products, and it was an attractive looking array of vegetables and flowers which they were able to produce.

Grown under the direction of Miss Jean Stevenson, teacher of agriculture in the school, their vegetables were of a very excellent quality. There were quantities of fine carrots, parsnips, cucumbers and cabbage, as well as large and beautiful autumn flowers. Among the latter was a sunflower, which was almost a curiosity, so large was the expanse of the flower.
