Ottawa, June 12.—In the commons Mr. McNeill moved the reception of a position presented on a previous day from a number of persons in Wiarton praying that their animes, which appeared on an anti-franchise petition, be struck off, as they had been induced to sign the latter by false representations. He presented alse a statory declaration by Geo, Kidd, merchant, attropy delaration by Geo, Kidd, merchant, attropy delaration by Geo, Kidd, merchant, attropy delaration by Geo, Kidd, merchant, and that several other institutes in each of the same, the committee recommended the establishment of such institutes are being sensition and that several other improvements were under progress. The report was adopted.

On motion of Erastus Jackson a resolution was passed expressing pleasure with the satisfactory manner in which Lieut.

Gov. Robinson discharged his duties since his appointment. With reference to the communication from Hon. A. M. Ross, minister of agriculture, re the formation of armers' institutes in each of the same, the committee recommended the establishment of such institutes as being beneficial in stimulating interest in springitural matters, and recommended that $25 be paid to each of these institutes. The amount of taxes to be levied for all purposes was put down at forgrey. This he refused.

Mr. Landerkin read a letter stating that Ridd's name had been signed to the petition by his bookkeeper.

Young men with an ambition to enter the ministry because it is professional and respectable had far better apply themselves to civil engineering, land surveying, the law or medicine, though it is evident some of these professions are becoming overcrewded. Better still, let them try farming, after going through a scientific course of instruction at Guelph, and do honor to the great class of producers who are the mainstay and backbone of Canada. I can fancy no more humiliating position than that of a needy minister continually exhorting his flock to "give," and at the same time claiming to exercise a sort of sacerdotal authority over those con whom he must depend for his dealers.

The Allan Line. Passengers availing themselves of the St. Lawrence route can proceed by the 8.30 a.m. express train, leaving Toronto every Friday, arrive at Quebec at 8 next morning, and are conveyed direct from the train to the mail steamer in a special ferry boat, so that passengers are at no expense of conveyance for themselves or baggage from the railway station to the ship. This is an item in itself, without counting the convenience of being put on board the ateamer without detention or annoyance. The steamships next month will commence running through the Straits of Belle Isle, which practically reduces the journey to six days from land to land.
