It is feared that the quarterly examinations at Nankin will be made a pretext for a general outbreak. At the lowest estimate 30,000 students will assemble in the ancient student brings with him a servant. All the merchants collect there, and upward of a hundred thousand able-bodied men will thus be in Nankin in addition to the normal population. These examinations begin the first week in September, and it is the literati who constitute the most dangerous element of the Kalaohwei; the hotbed of it is in the province of Hunan.

The British Minister Does Not Think the Uprisings of Much Importance.

Newport, R.I., Aug. 10.—Sir Julian
Pauncefote, the British Minister, was the representative of his Government for many years and had been Attorney-General at Hong Kong and also had held other importent positions there.

These uprisings, he said, were common and he did not attach any importance to them.

beauty. Notwithstanding the large number of pocket and crush hats constantly sold, there is a demand for a fine light-weight article for traveling; one that will fold in a small compass and be fine and dressy. There are always appreciative customers who want something finer and better than the general public and are willing to pay the price for such a luxury. Such a pocket hat may be found at Dineen's, on corner King and Yonge streets.

We need only say for the information of Mrc Creighton, who, by the way, is also an old and valued friend of ours, that if he knew as much as we know, and as he ought to know about printing, that the plates in question were not chiselled, but simply battered with the end of a common belt punch, and that the G.M. did not use his gavei to drive it home, but a simple monkey-wrench seized in emergency.
