LUCAS—McCORMICK

The Congregational Church, Watford, was the scene of an event of much interest on Thursday last, April 7th, when two of the most popular young people of Warwick and Brooke Townships, Jessie Pearl, second daughter of the late R. J. and Mrs. Elizabeth L. McCormick, and Sanford Lorne, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Lucas, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The bride was charmingly attired in a traveling suit of navy tricot with hat to match, and an ermine tie, and was also wearing a corsage bouquet of orchids, sweetheart roses and sweet peas.

The marriage ceremony took place in the presence of the immediate members of the two families, with the bride's pastor, the Rev. T. DeCourcy Rayner, as the officiating minister. The pulpit platform was tastefully decorated with hyacinths and daffodils from the garden of the bride's sister, Mrs. Ruby Freele, of Forest.

Following the ceremony the bridal party adjourned to the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth L. McCormick, where a tasty buffet lunch was served.

The happy couple then motored to London to catch the evening train for the east. The honeymoon is being spent in Hamilton and Toronto, following which Mr. and Mrs. Lucas will make their home in Desbaretts, Ont., where the groom is manager of the Merchants Bank.

HARRISON—EDWARDS

One of those charming events which stir a whole community and attract the attention of every one, transpired on the 2nd line south, last Thursday, April 7th, at one o'clock p.m. It was the marriage of Mr. Charles Leslie Harrison of Smith Township, Peterboro County, to Miss Grace Fleming Edwards eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Edwards at whose home the ceremony took place. The occasion also marked the 73rd anniversary of the birthday of the grandmother of the bride, Mrs. McKenzie, who was present to enjoy and grace this historic event. Another striking feature was the signing of the register as witnesses by the same two which performed like service on the occasion of the marriage of the bride's father and mother. These were Mr. Walter W. Edwards of Watford, brother of the bride's father, and Mrs. W. E. Parker, of Warwick, sister of the bride's mother.

The happy couple were unattended. The bride was conveyed by her father through an aisle formed by streamers of ribbon arranged by Frank Edwards and Ivan Parker who scattered flowers in her path as they approached the waiting bridegroom tarrying beneath a beautiful arch banked with flowers. All the while the wedding march, was being played by Miss Florence E. Edwards, sister of the bride. Here the words of mystic union were spoken by Rev. A. C. Tiffin as the contracting parties pledged their faith, and pledged their fidelity either to other. While the register was being signed, Donald, the little brother of the bride, sang sweetly "O Perfect Love."

The bride looked very pretty in a dress of cream georgette with trimmings of gold. She wore the bridal veil and carried a bouquet of cream roses. The groom's gift to the bride was a lovely chain and pearl pendant, to the pianist an opal ring, and to her brother Donald, a lovely tie pin. The numerous gifts and valuable presents to the bride betokened the high esteem in which she is held and the best wishes of her many friends. The guests were confined to the uncles and aunts of the bride and some few close friends and relatives. The wedding dinner was abundant and most appetizing and was served in splendid style amid surroundings that everywhere betokened the marriage festivity.

The happy couple left that evening on a brief honeymoon trip to Sarnia. They will be at home after the middle of the month at the home of the groom near Lakeview, Peterboro County. The good wishes of all their friends accompany them on the voyage of life.

A large crop of potatoes remain in the hands of the growers of Michigan, according to the answers received to a questionnaire sent to banks in 285 towns of the state from which potatoes are shipped. Many of the farmers are feeding "spuds" and many others declare they will not ship unless prices advance.
