John Farrell, supervisor of immi gration has received word from the department of colonization, Toronto to the effet that it has been decided to keep the London immigration office open until November. Ordinarily the office is closed each year by the end if July. Mr. Farrel was further informed that during the three month extended period the depart ment would make a thorough invest gation as to the need of a permanent official the year round. If it is found necessary Mr. Farrell will, of course, receive the appointment.

A Field Day for the Young People's Leagues of Strathrov districts will be held at the Waterworks Park, Wat-ford, on Wednesday next, August 29. The sports will begin at one o'clock and will consist of boys' and girls' relay races, a basket ball game be-tween Uttoxeter and Bethesda, five innings of soft-ball between Cairn gorm and Arkona, and group games. Old fashioned picnic supper at six o'clock. The evening program at 7.30 will comprise a song, service led by the Watford choir and other musical selections; the final debate in the district tournament, Appin vs. Kerwood; and the presentation to winning leagues.

THE LUCKHAM FAMILY PICNIC

On Wednesday of last week, Aug. 15th, a reunion of the Luckham family was held at the old homestead, now the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Vance. Mrs. Vance is a daughter of the late Nicholas Luckham, who lived all his life on the place. A very pleasant afternoon was spent in various games by the younger folk and a walk around the old farm by the oldgames by the younger folk er ones, recalling old experiences and old landmarks. Supper was served on the spacious lawn, after which an impromptu but very enjoyable program was carried out. Mr. Friend Luckham, Watford's postmaster, pre sided, and called upon his father, the oldest member present, who is now in his 92nd year, to open the program. He responded by giving us a very interesting talk, reminiscent of the early days and "We love to hear the old Pioneer tell of the days of yore."

He was followed by Mr. John Thomas who told of his early recol-lections of the Luckham family and of his youthful impressions. We were next favored by a very felicitous and instructive address by Dr. Maxwell of Kingsville. Mr. Wm. Luckham, who was raised on the homestead, now of Winnipeg, spoke to us of the West and Western homesteads, which now compared very favorably with ours. The program was interspersed with songs by W. H. Luckham and with songs by W. H. Luckham and Mr. Friend Luckham, lastly Mr. Wm. Luckham sang, his fine voice very slightly impaired, notwithstanding his years, "Thou thinkest Lord of me," years, "Thou thinkest Lord of his, his daughter, Mrs. Maxwell accompanying him. Then just as the sun set with single in singing "Shall We all joined in singing "Shall We Gather at the River" when the company broke up, all feeling 'twas good to have been there.
