Joseph A. Martin, claiming to hail from Elgin Lodge, No. 36, Manchester, N. H., a French Canadian, has been endeavoring to obtain Masonic assistance. A telegram has been received by Bro. John Moore, of Ottawa, from the Grand Secretary of that State, saying there is no such lodge in New Hampshire.

On the 14th of February, R. W. Bro. Fisher, D. D. G. M., Toronto District, accompanied by W. Bro. Leslie, visited Tuscan Lodge, No. 99, G. R. C., Newmarket. The distinguished Brother expressed himself well pleased with the proceedings, and after the labors of the evening were closed, the brethren adjourned to refreshment at the Royal Hotel, where a couple of very pleasant hours were spent.

Right Worshipful Bro. L. G. Jarvis, D. D. G. M., last month visited Ailsa Craig Lodge, No. 214. A very interesting meeting was held, in which the work was exemplified by the acting W. M., Rev. Bro. Wells. The D. D. G. M. expressed his satisfaction with the working of the lodge, which, he was pleased to say, was second to none in his district. A very pleasant wind up was held at Bro. Hector Munro's after the lodge adjourned.

During the term that W. Bro. L. S. Dewar occupied the East of St. John's Lodge, No. 209a, no fewer than 18 were initiated, three affiliated, 21 passed and 27 raised. It is doubtful if any other lodge in the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Canada can show a better record than 209a. It is the only lodge in the Dominion which has the sanction of the G. L. to work the original York Rite, as it is known in Ireland and throughout the United States.
