everything as low as consistent ; and invariably when I have given credit to a numter in the past, I have lost more than the profits would amount to. So my rule i.s the future will be cash with ord-r."

We have just received a very neatly ptinted illustrated catalogue from G. B. Lewis, of Watertown, Wisconsin. It contains thirty stx pages. We notice that he not ony exhmits various syles of hives, sections, supers &c., but he also fllusirat-shas :asket box or packing case which is me ting with so much favor from shippres.

Some of our Jou* nals lose the aduress in the mail bar. They are sent hack by the first mall clerk for better dire. tions. The adjress being rubbed off we cannot redirect. Now, we want our subscribers :o sent us sither a cud or letters ating that they have not recelved their Journal. On receipt of same we will mail mother number. Any one, who during the year lost a number, can have it replaced if he will send the date.

We daily receive postal cards and closed letters from some of our cousins across the border, asking us to forward a sample copy of our journal. We do this cheerfully in every case, but remember, the United States is considerable of a farm, and the inhabitants the reot make no bones about appropriating such names as Jackson, Columbus. Wa hirgion, Lincoln or Springfit ld. Tnwe is not a State in the Union which has a monoply of names, and it is rather puzzling to our office staff to mail a Bee Journal to Bro. Jonathan, Columbus. Sign your names legibly-put down your P. O., County and State-we will mall you a sample copy. The result will be a new subscriber.

In our issue of the 15 th of January, we publish a full report of the Committee on Affiliation. Just as we go to press Mr. C. Dadant, Secretary, sonds us a commun!ration which appears in another column. Our report on the C -mmittee on Affiliation is from the original. Mr. Dadant's communication corflicts somewhat with the said report. That committee was composed of men who are quite able to look after themselves as well as the interests of the Ontario Bee Keepers Association. We gladly throw open our columns for coriespondence or comments on the friction which evidently exists between the Stcretary of the International AssociaII.n and the committee whose report forced Mr. Dajant to reply.

Those who are members oit O . B. K. A. will please look at their wrappers for this issie. What ever nember appear- atter sour name gives the exniring number of your subecription. Before the issue of the i5th, we will arrange our mailing list so as to extend ra.h and every subscriber who is a member of the O. B. K. A. one year's sulscrip:ion. Look at your wrappet lor this issue. - See if your number is correct. If not, drop us a card at once advising us of any error. Bee keepers who intend taking advantage of the 0 . B. K. A's. generous off $r$, are requested to communicate at once with the Secy, W. Couse, Streetsville. The O. B. K. A's. offer for every member to the Association at $1, the (.B. J. free for one year. Any suts rilier to the BEE Journal who will join the association will have his subscription extended one year on the C. B. J if he mails to the Secretary $$ 1$.

We are pleased to be able to announce that the Ontario Bee-Keepers Association at their last meeting decided to give each member of the Association the $C$. B. J. for one year, anticipating by this lilerality on their part, that it will add a cory large number to the present m mblership of the Association. In consideration of the lavcrable terms with the present owners of the Eanadian Bee Journal, made with the Directors of the U. B. K. A. for the supplying of these Journals to all thi ir members, they in return are to recelve the cordial support, both financial and moral, of the association. This should very largely increase the circulation of the Journal. The improvements that are to ${ }^{5}$ added to t!? Bee Journal will make it second to none. This, combined with the business ability, push and financial standing of the present owners, should place it on a basis that will enable all to give it their h:arty support. Now,
