THE SABBATH SCHOOL
Teacher's Companion.

BY REV. JOHN McEWEEN.

The Teacher and Senior Scholar's Companion to the Old Testament Series of the International Lessons, beginning with the Book of Genesis, on the first Sabbath of July, 1886 ready.

This book will be found to meet a felt want in the International System of S. S. Lessons. It presents the entire Book of Scripture in a connected and progressive form—taking up the dropped links of connection between the lessons. It has a Normal Class Exercise on Bible investigation, illustrated by the Book of Genesis.

Price 10 cents per copy, or $3.00 per dozen. Sent on any address, post free, on receipt of price.

WELLS, RICHARDSON & CO'S IMPROVED
BUTTER COLOR
A NEW DISCOVERY.

For several years we have furnished the dairymen of America with an excellent, artificial color for butter, so meritorious that it met with great success everywhere, receiving the highest and only prize at both International Dairy Fairs.

It is put by patient and accurate chemical research, and is improved in every respect, and now offers this new color as the best in the world. It will not color the buttermilk. It will not turn rancid. It is the strongest, brightest and cheapest color made.

And, while prepared in oil, is so compounded, that it is impossible for it to become rancid. BEWARE of all imitations, and of all other oil colors, for they are liable to become rancid and spoil the butter.

If you cannot get the "Improved" write us to know where and how to get it without extra charges.

HOLIDAY BOOK!
WALKS ABOUT ZION.

BY REV. JOS. ELLIOT.

172 pages. Cloth, 50 cents; in paper, 30 cent. Mailed to any address, free of postage, on receipt of price.

"Among good books for devotional or practical religion, one we may mention with commendation 'Walks About Zion,' a service of brief, interesting and practical addresses on religious topics."—New York Independent.

"Mr. Elliot is the possessor of a crisp and pure style. His reasoning is clearly expressed. He is a most impressive exponent of the Word of God."—Presbyterian Review.

"These addresses are brief, pointed, eminently practical. Mr. Elliot is well known in this community as an accomplished expounder of the Word of God, and with the aid of having much in little, much meaning, few words, this is the characteristic of these addresses, which we most cordially commend to the thoughtful reader. We confess to be reminded by these brief and terse discourses of our dear old countryman, John Foster."—Presbyterian (Halifax) Witness.

SIGNIFICANT SPRING.

A Dissertation upon its advent, and its effect upon mankind.

"The green leaf of the new come Spring,"—Shak. Everybody recognizes spring, when it is only upon us, but many persons are not familiar with the exact date of its appearance. Webster, the world-renowned lexicographer, gives us a definition, which may not be inappropriate here. "Spring," says he, "is the season of the year when plants begin to vegetate and rise, the vernal season, comprehending the months of March, April and May, in the middle latitudes north of the equator."

Thomson, in his "Seasons," and Shakespeare, in many of his works, have, perhaps, no poets in describing it, and yet "ethereal spring" is freighted with malice, "that insidious lurking unseen in the very air we breathe." It spreads over the earth, portions of our land, brings death and disease to thousands, cuts off scores upon scores of our children and youth, as well as those in advanced life. A pestilence is regarded with little less apprehension, and people everywhere are asking, "What is it? Where does it come from? What will cure it?"

KIDNEY-WORT AS A SPRING MEDICINE.

When you begin to lose appetite—have a headache, a pain in your side, back, and shoulders; toss about at night in restless sleep; wake in the morning with a foul mouth and furred tongue; feel disinclined to go about your work, heavy in body and oppressed in mind; have a fit of the blues; when your urine gets scanty or high colored; or to suffer with constipation, diarrhoea, or flatulency; have a pasty, yellow face, dull eyes, and a blotched skin, which result of these common complaints will certainly be evidences that your liver is disordered, torpid, or perhaps diseased. A bottle of Kidney-Wort is, under such circumstances, a priceless boon to such a person.

Bare assertions of proprietors have come to possess less force than they frequently merit. The cause of this condition of popular skepticism is, in the main, to be found in the fact that charlatanism covers our broad land. Meritorious articles are too frequently found in bad company.

The proprietors of Kidney-Wort always prove all their assertions, touching the merits of their preparations. When we affirm, therefore, that Kidney-Wort is a specific for just such disorders as have been mentioned in this article, the proof, too, belongs to and shall, follow this statement.

A PHYSICIAN'S EXPERIENCE.

Dr. R. K. Clark, a regular physician of extensive practice in Grand Isle County, and a worthy deacon of the Congregational Church, at South Hero, Vt., has used Kidney-Wort for several years in his practice, and before the present proprietors purchased an interest in it, he had given his unbiased opinion in its favour. This opinion has not changed. "It has done better than any other remedy I have ever used," says the Doctor, and, further on he writes: "I do not recollect an instance where the patient to whom I have given it has failed to receive benefit from its use, and in some severe cases most decidedly so." These are strong words. They are from a representative, conscientious, ever-approachable public citizen, however, and—better still—they are true.

Kidney-Wort will bear all the encomiums lavished upon it by its friends—and their name is legion. "I will swear by Kidney-Wort all the time," writes Mr. J. E. Kauffman, of Lancaster, Pa. We will supplement this by asserting, as a matter of fact, and one capable of demonstration, that all honest patrons of this remedy are its friends and advocates.

A BOON TO MEN

All those who from indigestion, excessive or irregular exercise, or from other causes are weak, enervated, low spirited, physically drained, and unable to perform life's duties properly, can be restored and permanently cured, without resorting to medicine. Kidney-Wort cures indigestion and the press. The Kidney-Wort is a potent and pure of treating Nervous Debility, Rheumatism, Gout, etc. It is wholly expander by THE MANITOWOC BOTTLING WORKS, and is sold by all druggists and chemists. Send for circular. Sample, free, clearly explaining the full merits of this remedy. Circulars to be sent to: MARCH KIDNEY CO., 75 Temple St., Toronto, Ont.
