

MONTREAL MINING EXCHANGE.

Business was extremely quiet this a.m. in mining securities.

The only feature of strength was in Golden Star, which sold for 65. Some 4500 shares changed hands. Outside of this security there was nothing doing.

Until money circulates more freely, we can see little chance of having better markets. It is hoped that with the new month financial matters will become more satisfactory.

Decca showed signs of strength, but it was only dealt in to the amount of 1000 shares which, however, sold at 30, with sellers asking 35.

Competition between capitalists for the acquisition and working of some of the best mines and claims, continues as keen as ever. Montreal on the whole, seems to be gaining in the rivalry, although Toronto comes in with a good second. The latter place got a good start in the acquisition of the Gooderham and Blackstock Syndicate of the War Eagle and Centre Star of Rossland. But Montreal controls what is still the "banner" producer of the Slocan, the Payne mine. Montreal also has almost exclusive control of the Old Ironsides and Knob Hill, in Boundary Creek, these have proved themselves to be almost the two biggest copper mines in the whole of British Columbia, and Montreal capitalists have now acquired the Virginia, Monte Christo, and other promising claims in Rossland.
