

Kruger's Declaration of War.

London, Oct. 10.—The Cabinet has been summoned to meet at the Foreign Office on Friday next.

The ultimatum of the Transvaal Government has been received by the British Government.

Boers Beyond Control.—The only wonder is why Mr. President Kruger is so long in making his reply.

Refugees as Volunteers.—The expiration of the time limit of the ultimatum to-morrow evening does not leave much time to be lost.

Outside the momentous news of the ultimatum nothing of moment has been heard from the Boers.

The Ultimatum Arrives.—The text of the Boer ultimatum, as arranged by Lord Roberts, was sent to the British Government.

War It Must Be Now.—In ordinary circumstances the demand of the Boers would be regarded as a reasonable one.

Transport for Delagoa Bay.—The Portuguese Government has been asked to furnish the necessary transport.

War Preparations Going On.—The British Government is pushing with the greatest energy the mobilization of its forces.

An Immediate Advance.—A Cape Town despatch from Pretoria to a Cape Town newspaper says that the British Government has issued a notice to the troops in the district.

Highlanders for Ladysmith.—London, Oct. 10.—A despatch from Durban, Natal, dated yesterday, says: The Gordon Highlanders, which were ordered to leave Durban for Ladysmith.

Will Keep the Boers Out.—London, Oct. 10.—The action of the British Government in the Transvaal is being watched with interest.

Powerful at Cape Town.—Durban, Oct. 10.—M.M. de la Rive, who has just returned from Cape Town, has been seen at the Cape Town office.

Amidst a Cant Work.—London, Oct. 10.—A special despatch from Bloemfontein notes the difficulties in working the railway line to the relief of Ladysmith.

Kruger Are Collecting.—Lorenso Marques, Oct. 10.—Refugees who have arrived here report that Swastland, the administrative territory of the Boers.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Belgian Yesterday Morning.—London, Oct. 10.—Late this afternoon the Colonial Office gave out the text of the following telegram from the South African Republic.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

THE BOER ULTIMATUM.

Pretoria, N.A.R., Oct. 10.—The Transvaal Government has just handed the following ultimatum to Mr. Conyngham Greene the Diplomatic Agent here.

The ultimatum of the Transvaal Government has been received by the British Government.

Boers Beyond Control.—The only wonder is why Mr. President Kruger is so long in making his reply.

Refugees as Volunteers.—The expiration of the time limit of the ultimatum to-morrow evening does not leave much time to be lost.

Outside the momentous news of the ultimatum nothing of moment has been heard from the Boers.

The Ultimatum Arrives.—The text of the Boer ultimatum, as arranged by Lord Roberts, was sent to the British Government.

War It Must Be Now.—In ordinary circumstances the demand of the Boers would be regarded as a reasonable one.

Transport for Delagoa Bay.—The Portuguese Government has been asked to furnish the necessary transport.

War Preparations Going On.—The British Government is pushing with the greatest energy the mobilization of its forces.

An Immediate Advance.—A Cape Town despatch from Pretoria to a Cape Town newspaper says that the British Government has issued a notice to the troops in the district.

Highlanders for Ladysmith.—London, Oct. 10.—A despatch from Durban, Natal, dated yesterday, says: The Gordon Highlanders, which were ordered to leave Durban for Ladysmith.

Will Keep the Boers Out.—London, Oct. 10.—The action of the British Government in the Transvaal is being watched with interest.

Powerful at Cape Town.—Durban, Oct. 10.—M.M. de la Rive, who has just returned from Cape Town, has been seen at the Cape Town office.

Amidst a Cant Work.—London, Oct. 10.—A special despatch from Bloemfontein notes the difficulties in working the railway line to the relief of Ladysmith.

Kruger Are Collecting.—Lorenso Marques, Oct. 10.—Refugees who have arrived here report that Swastland, the administrative territory of the Boers.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

THE BOER ULTIMATUM.

Pretoria, N.A.R., Oct. 10.—The Transvaal Government has just handed the following ultimatum to Mr. Conyngham Greene the Diplomatic Agent here.

The ultimatum of the Transvaal Government has been received by the British Government.

Boers Beyond Control.—The only wonder is why Mr. President Kruger is so long in making his reply.

Refugees as Volunteers.—The expiration of the time limit of the ultimatum to-morrow evening does not leave much time to be lost.

Outside the momentous news of the ultimatum nothing of moment has been heard from the Boers.

The Ultimatum Arrives.—The text of the Boer ultimatum, as arranged by Lord Roberts, was sent to the British Government.

War It Must Be Now.—In ordinary circumstances the demand of the Boers would be regarded as a reasonable one.

Transport for Delagoa Bay.—The Portuguese Government has been asked to furnish the necessary transport.

War Preparations Going On.—The British Government is pushing with the greatest energy the mobilization of its forces.

An Immediate Advance.—A Cape Town despatch from Pretoria to a Cape Town newspaper says that the British Government has issued a notice to the troops in the district.

Highlanders for Ladysmith.—London, Oct. 10.—A despatch from Durban, Natal, dated yesterday, says: The Gordon Highlanders, which were ordered to leave Durban for Ladysmith.

Will Keep the Boers Out.—London, Oct. 10.—The action of the British Government in the Transvaal is being watched with interest.

Powerful at Cape Town.—Durban, Oct. 10.—M.M. de la Rive, who has just returned from Cape Town, has been seen at the Cape Town office.

Amidst a Cant Work.—London, Oct. 10.—A special despatch from Bloemfontein notes the difficulties in working the railway line to the relief of Ladysmith.

Kruger Are Collecting.—Lorenso Marques, Oct. 10.—Refugees who have arrived here report that Swastland, the administrative territory of the Boers.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

Text of the Cablegram Sent by Sir Alfred Milner.—London, Oct. 10.—The text of the cablegram sent by Sir Alfred Milner to the British Government.

LATEST MARKETS.

Two-day Evening, Oct. 10.—Chicago wheat market was dull and inactive.

Stocks of wheat at Fort William and Port Arthur on Oct. 10 were 410,800 bushels.

Chicago stocks are: Wheat 8,210,000 bushels, an increase of 62,210 bushels a week ago.

Receipts at Liverpool during the past three days were 498,000 centals, including 174,000 centals of American.

The Michigan crop report for October 10 shows that 12,000,000 bushels of wheat were harvested.

Following are the closing prices at important wheat centres to-day:

Leading Wheat Markets.—Following are the closing prices at important wheat centres to-day:

Flour—Ontario patents, 10 lbs. $3.70 to $3.80; straight patents, $3.40 to $3.50.

Wheat—Ontario, red and white, 60c north and 50c south; 10 lbs. $1.20 to $1.30.

White—White oats quoted at 20c west; 10 lbs. $1.20 to $1.30.

Barley—Quoted at 42c for No. 2 west; 10 lbs. $1.20 to $1.30.

Brass—Cotton seed oil at 32c and 31c shorts at 31c in car lots, E.O.B., Toronto.

Buckwheat—Prime, 45c north and 60c west; 10 lbs. $1.20 to $1.30.

Corn—Canadian, 30c west, and American 40c; 10 lbs. $1.20 to $1.30.

Onion—Quoted at $3.40 by the bag and $3.50 to $3.60 on track at Toronto, in car lots.

Peas—At 60c to 60c north and west for immediate shipment.

ST. LAWRENCE MARKET.—Receipts of farm produce were fair.

Wheat—Red and white steady, with good 3/4c earlier, as follows: White, 100 bushels $2.00 to $2.10.

Barley—Quoted at 42c for No. 2 west; 10 lbs. $1.20 to $1.30.

Brass—Cotton seed oil at 32c and 31c shorts at 31c in car lots, E.O.B., Toronto.

Buckwheat—Prime, 45c north and 60c west; 10 lbs. $1.20 to $1.30.

Corn—Canadian, 30c west, and American 40c; 10 lbs. $1.20 to $1.30.

Onion—Quoted at $3.40 by the bag and $3.50 to $3.60 on track at Toronto, in car lots.

Peas—At 60c to 60c north and west for immediate shipment.

ST. LAWRENCE MARKET.—Receipts of farm produce were fair.

Wheat—Red and white steady, with good 3/4c earlier, as follows: White, 100 bushels $2.00 to $2.10.

Barley—Quoted at 42c for No. 2 west; 10 lbs. $1.20 to $1.30.

Brass—Cotton seed oil at 32c and 31c shorts at 31c in car lots, E.O.B., Toronto.

Canadian Catholic Readers

A new series of Canadian Catholic Readers prepared by some of the leading teachers of Ontario, named for the work by the Bishops and the Education Department.

The paper, illustrations, binding and general mechanical execution are up to the high standard required by the Government for corresponding books used in Public Schools.

PUBLISHED BY THE COPP CLARK CO., LIMITED 9 FRONT ST. W., TORONTO.

Advertisement for a book or publication, mentioning 'Catholic Readers' and 'Copp Clark Co., Limited'.

Advertisement for a book or publication, mentioning 'Catholic Readers' and 'Copp Clark Co., Limited'.

Advertisement for a book or publication, mentioning 'Catholic Readers' and 'Copp Clark Co., Limited'.

Advertisement for a book or publication, mentioning 'Catholic Readers' and 'Copp Clark Co., Limited'.

Advertisement for a book or publication, mentioning 'Catholic Readers' and 'Copp Clark Co., Limited'.

Advertisement for a book or publication, mentioning 'Catholic Readers' and 'Copp Clark Co., Limited'.

Advertisement for a book or publication, mentioning 'Catholic Readers' and 'Copp Clark Co., Limited'.

Advertisement for a book or publication, mentioning 'Catholic Readers' and 'Copp Clark Co., Limited'.

Advertisement for a book or publication, mentioning 'Catholic Readers' and 'Copp Clark Co., Limited'.

Advertisement for a book or publication, mentioning 'Catholic Readers' and 'Copp Clark Co., Limited'.

Advertisement for a book or publication, mentioning 'Catholic Readers' and 'Copp Clark Co., Limited'.

Advertisement for a book or publication, mentioning 'Catholic Readers' and 'Copp Clark Co., Limited'.

Advertisement for a book or publication, mentioning 'Catholic Readers' and 'Copp Clark Co., Limited'.

Advertisement for a book or publication, mentioning 'Catholic Readers' and 'Copp Clark Co., Limited'.

Advertisement for a book or publication, mentioning 'Catholic Readers' and 'Copp Clark Co., Limited'.