

A Friend In Need

-Pearline. It's a friend indeed to every woman. It washes clothes, paint, dishes, glass—anything that you want clean. It washes with half the labor, and without harm. It cleans without wearing out, and without worry. Pearline saves the hardest part of all work. Have nothing to do with imitations; you'll have little to do, if you use Pearline.

Beware Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as" Pearline. IT'S FALSE. Pearline is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearline, do the honest thing—send it back. JAMES PYLE, N.Y.

Literature.

"THE DIATESSARON," by Tatian. Toronto: Fleming H. Revell Company. $3.50.

"THE DIATESSARON—from the Four" is a life of Christ composed from the four Gospels by Tatian. Outside of the Gospels it is the oldest life of Christ extant. Tatian was born in Assyria, A.D. 110. He was a man of birth and fortune, and was possessed of strong literary tastes. He was likewise animated by a strong desire to arrive at the truth concerning God. To this end he visited many foreign countries, studying the worship of each. At Rome Tatian was introduced to the Old Testament Scriptures by Justin. Satisfied that he had now found the truth, Tatian embraced the Christian faith and became a member of the church in Rome. Here he stayed many years writing in defence of the faith, and while here he wrote the Diatessaron. After the martyrdom of Justin, Tatian, having given offence to the Christians at Rome, left in 172 for Syria, where he died in 180. The Diatessaron is a chronological harmony of the Gospels, and is composed of 100 sections. In this volume we have presented to the English reader for the first time a literal translation of this great work, which has been a subject of special interest to Christians of every age since it was first written. A book read by the Christians of the second century cannot but be of interest to the Christians of the nineteenth.

Valuable to Know.

Consumption may be more easily prevented than cured. The irritating and harassing cough will be greatly relieved by the use of Haggard's Pectoral Balsam, that cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, and all pulmonary troubles.

A PRETTY FACE

is the result of a healthy physical condition. "Beauty is but skin deep" yet it greatly depends on a clear complexion, free from wrinkles and hollow cheeks.

Health always brings wealth of beauty. A healthy state of the system comes with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It's a medicine prepared for woman's ailments—it cures those derangements and weaknesses which make woman's life miserable.

A woman who neglects to take proper exercise is particularly prone to excessive congestion, debility and a sluggish circulation. This is the time we advise the "Prescription." In all derangements and displacements of the special organs which result in "signs of inflammation," in catarrhal discharges from the lining membranes, and in distressing irregularities—this medicine is guaranteed to benefit or cure, or the money is returned.
