The Egan Imperial Trust Co., Toronto, have shown us a large number of testimonials from some of the leading physicians of Canada and the United States, highly commending their manufacturers, and many others from persons who state over their own signatures that they have received very great benefit from their appliances, and not a few who add that they have been completely cured. The company has issued a circular of testimonials giving names and addresses of persons treated by them. We would recommend any of the readers of the REVIEW who may need their services to procure a copy of their circular. The Egan Imperial Trust Co., Toronto, bears the reputation of being perfectly trustworthy.

The New Salvation Army Temple, Toronto, was dedicated last Sunday in the presence of a very large audience. The Army paraded through the principal streets on Monday.
