corrupt practices are likewise altered. The fountain of British misfortunes is the corruption of Protestant morality. In Protestant Britain-

This is the real age of gold, For everything is bought and sold.

The votes of constituents and the seats of legislators are bought at the hustings, and those who incur the costs of an election and reimburse themselves by the sale of situations can best explain the official stupidity and impracticability which strips the British soldiers to the freezing winds of Tartary. The sale of situations to "incapacity with two hundred pounds" will enable us to understand why it is that the English are unable to get a few shiploads of timber to construct a road from Balak ava to the camp, and why it is that a kingdom which traffics in everything cannot make a road as efficiently as France, where places are not

If the infamous advertisements which we have quoted from English newspapers swarmed in the newspapers of France, and were answered as satisfactorily, negligence and incapacity would visit their army with famine and pestilence. The soldiers would shiver in rags and flounder through mud precisely like the British soldiers. It is the venality of the Pro-testant public and the British press which originates these "shortcomings, blindness, blunderings, carelessness, indifference, incompetence in the civil and military departments," on which the English journals ring the changes. Those very journals contribute to do it. The blind and devouring greediness of gain, which stripped the Priests in the "Reformation" and plunders the Clergy of Piedmont in our day, precipitates Britain to ruin in the Crimea, and the curse of sacrilege is on the English army. If the roofs of the huts were sent out in one ship and the bodies in another, so as to retard their erection for a fortnight while the soldiers dropt dead from cold, we believe the cause of the blunder is to be found in the sale of situations, and we believe we could remedy all the disasters of the Crimea if we could impress upon the Protestant people, and, above all, the salesmen of situations, the neglected truth that the possession of £500 does not imply the possession of moral integrity and diligence in business in the owner. In this the mistake lies. Money is not invariably the concomitant of virtue. An ignorance of this fact has heaped up in inextricable confusion all the necessaries of life in Balaklava, while for the want of these very necessaries the soldiers are perishing on the heights of Sebastopol. Shiploads are lying pell-mell at Balaklava, but the brain to bring them up does not exist among the officials; and as the Times said the other day :-"The Russians-serfs, brutes, savages, as we are

New York, March 3. - A meeting of delegates from the various Irish civic societies was held here last night. The president was opposed to any public procession on St. Patrick's day on account of the general depression of business. A large number of societies announced their intention of turning out, and a committee was appointed to secure the co-operation of the Irish militia companies.

NEW YORK MARCH 5TH.-The steamship "Black Warrior" arrived here this morning with Havana dates to the 27th. The blockade of the different ports of Cuba sill continues, but the steamers were not retarded in their movements. No new arrests had transpired, but great military preparations were going on. H. B. M. frigate "Vestal," was in port. A grand military review and mock battle had taken place near Port Principe, in presence of the Captain General. The numerous volunteers were undergoing numerous drilling. A report was in circulation that all foreigners would shortly be required to take arms or quit Cuba. The officers appointed in the various volunteer troops are gazetted, and the Cela rooms with offers of assistance to repel the invasion from various citizens in all directions. A martial spirit seems to have been aroused, and the fillibuster expedition would stand but a poor chance just now.

REACTION AGAINST THE KNOW-NOTHINGS. - Senator Slater has introduced a bill in the Indiana Legislature to break up Know-Nothing Lodges. It declares it to be a conspiracy for persons to band themselves together under solemn oaths, for the purpose of depriving any citizen of the State of his political rights under the Constitution.

There is at present one new vessel building in New York. Such dull times were never known among ship .builders.

The Board of Governors of the New York Almshouse have passed a resolution removing from the institution all officers who are not natives or naturalized citizens.

The New York Fire Department, are about introducing a new kind of hose made of hompen strings, knit and plaited together so close as to be impervious to water. It will be much lighter than the hose now in use, and will come about 35 per cent cheaper.

Some young scholars who were celebrating Washington's birth-day, at Provincetown, Mass., were seriously injured by the premature discharge of an old cannon.

William Poole, a New York pugilist, was shot and severely wounded by a party of blacklegs, on Saturday evening last, and died of his injuries on Monday morning. His murderers have been arrested.

The Detroit Free Press says that in all parts of Michigan the winter wheat is looking exceedingly well. The quantity upon the ground is greater than in any former year, and with no intervening calamity, the crop will be unprecedented.

The Buffalo Republic says.—"Every day serves to confirm our belief that flour will be sold in this market, on or before the first of June next, at five or six dollars a barrel."

Cattle are said to be dying of starvation in some parts of Ohio; the drought last simmer having out off the usual supplies necessary for their sustenance.

An drishman who was overpaid $100 about a year ago, by one of the Indiana Banks, a lew days ago cal-ed at-the Bank on his return from "out West," and returned the identical $100. which he had kept sewed up in his pantaloons for a whole year.

Сичкон Викико.—We regret to learn that St. John's Church, Long Green, Baltimore, was accidentally destroyed by fire on the 25th uit. The loss is over $3,000.— Catholic Mirror.

A young candidate in the State Prison, Imlay by name, fourteen years old, stole two thousand two hundred dollars from his employers in Boston, bought a horse for which he paid $175, eloped to Providence, was arrested there, and brought back, and on searching the house where he lived, it was found that Colt's revolvers, hunting knives, smoking caps, and other useful and ornamental articles adorned his room? Considering that his wages were $1,75 per week, and that he had a short time before loaned, his employers $300, given $425 more to a friend for safe keeping, and was flushed when arrested, he must be set down as a very precions young gentleman. - State of Maine.

Public Executions.—The Galena (Illinois) Jeffersonian relates the following occurrences at the execution of Taylor a few days ago:—"One man was drowned in crossing the Mississippi: another was cilled by a blow on the head near the place of execuion, by a team's running away; a mother fell from the fence near the scaffold with a child in her arms, and broke its arm; another woman's foot was crushed in going to the execution, and the poor creature, indifferent to the pain, wept bitterly because she couldn't see the man hanged !' "

A house, mounted on runners, and drawn by eight oxen, passed through Watertown, Wisconsin, two or three weeks since. It was the dwelling of a pioneer, bound farther West. Within, the wife was discharging her domestic duties, whilst six or seven young heads were seen peeping from the windows.

SoluMNITIES OF AN OATH.—The February number of the Knickerbocker gets off the following, for the benefit of courts, lawyers, witnesess, &c.

'A correspondent in Ottawa county Michigan, from whom we are always glad to here, gives us the following 'Scene in the Mayor's-Courl, Grand Rapids,' Mayor Church Presiding. Witness called up to be sworn by the clerk.

Clerk. 'You do solemnly swear -Mayor, (with dignity.) Stop! The witness will hold up his right hand.

Clerk. The man has no right hand your Honor. Mayor, (with some asperity.) Let him hold up his eft hand then.

Clerk. 'He has had the misfortune to lose his left hand also, as your honour will perceive.

Mayor, (savagely.) Tell him to hold up his right leg, then; a man cannot be sworn in this court without holding up something! Silence gentlemen! our dignity must be preserved? (Witness sworn on one

DISEASE OF THE LIVER.

When the celebrated Dr. Rush declared that runkenness was a disease, he enunciated a truth which the experience and observation of medical men is every day confirming. The many apparently insane excesses of those who include in the use of spirituous liquors, may be thus accounted for. The true cause of conduct, which is taken for infatuation, is very frequently a diseased state of the Liver. No organ in he human system, when deranged, produces a more frightful catalogue of diseases. And if, instead of applying remedies to the manifestations of disease, as is ioo often the case, physicians would prescribe with a view to the original cause, fewer deaths would result from diseases induced by a deranged state of the Li-Three-fourths of the diseases enumerated under the head of Consumption, have their seat in a diseased Liver.
