

THE EYES of the whole world are on CENTRAL BRITISH COLUMBIA, without doubt the richest undeveloped country on the continent. No man can estimate the value of its resources in farm lands, timber and mines. Projected railway development already under way calls for an expenditure of at least one hundred million dollars in the next few years, and it is safe to say that an additional hundred million will be expended in developing other enterprises. The surest way to share in this great distribution of wealth is to own a good farm along the line of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. Write for full particulars to
