DEATH OF F. L. CARTER-COTTON

Mr. F. L. Carter-Cotton passed away last week after a lingering illness following an attack of pneumonia during the late summer. Mr. Carter-Cotton was one of the best known newspaper men in the Province and either started or was early associated in the establishment of the News-Advertiser, Vancouver, then the leading organ of Conservative opinion in the Province, later being merged with the Vancouver Sun. When he disposed of his interests in the paper he engaged in general financial business and later devoted himself to the British Columbia Trust Corporation. He was the first chancellor of the University of British Columbia, and the first president of the Harbor Commission. Mr. Carter-Cotton took a wide interest in politics, having served several terms as a member of the Legislature at Victoria, and for a time was Minister of Finance, and before his retirement was for several years
