ADDRESS BY THE INTERNATIONAL CHILD
DEPARTMENT, U.S. DEPARTMENT OF STATE FOR THE INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE RIGHTS OF THE CHILD
PALACE, NEW YORK CITY, SEPTEMBER 1950

The President and distinguished delegates
The President of the Conference, on my behalf, I know that the General Assembly will be held in New York experience and the general, and the general, and the general to the successful course of your high school.
I am in welcoming the very distinguished members of the that they will be to advance and a number of new members in the United Nations as the Organization will be held in New York in the work for world
This is especially important in view of the fact that member states are in a state of transition and great changes are taking place and which have led to the world situation.
Other members of the United Nations have a responsibility to assist these new member states and to help in the development of their nations and problems.
The attached list is for the members of the delegation of the need to consider carefully the common interests of the United and of the Economic and Social Council and the geographical areas may be needed to address the organization in the various organizations of the United Nations.
In some respects, the Assembly gave the assistance of the of fact need to bring a number of members of the organization, however the new field of international relations, which is a new and progressive
