BILL Z².

An Act for the relief of Constance Hope Davidson.

Preamble.

WHEREAS Constance Hope Davidson, residing at the city of Westmount, in the province of Quebec, wife of Wayne Davidson, merchant, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city of Westmount, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fourteenth day of May, A.D. 1925, at the city of Montreal, in the said province, she then being Constance Hope, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Right to marry again.

2. The said Constance Hope may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Wayne Davidson had not been solemnized.
