

* THE "CANADIAN SPORTSMAN," established 1870. The only sporting paper published in Canada. Forty-eight columns weekly of the World's choicest legitimate sporting news. The fishing and hunting departments are particularly attractive features of the paper, and those who have a fondness for either the rod or gun will find the "Sportsman" an intensely interesting journal. Reliable information can, through its columns, be obtained respecting the best territory for sportsmen to visit, and those who accept its "pointers" may depend upon their reliability.

Subscription, $4.00 a year. Six months, $2.00. Strictly in advance.

E. KING DODDS,

EDITOR AND PUBLISHER,

TORONTO, ONT.