

CHAPTER XVIII.

PAGE

Winter Cantonments of the American Army—Washington at Middlebrook—Plan of Alarm Signals for the Jerseys—Lafayette's Project for an Invasion of Canada—Favored by Congress—Condemned by Washington—Relinquished—Washington in Philadelphia—The War Spirit declining—Dissensions in Congress—Sectional Feelings—Patriotic Appeals of Washington—Plans for the Next Campaign—Indian Atrocities to be repressed—Avenging Expedition set on Foot—Discontents of the Jersey Troops—Appeased by the Interference of Washington—Successful Campaign against the Indians 162

CHAPTER XIX.

Predatory Warfare of the Enemy—Ravages in the Chesapeake—Hostilities on the Hudson—Verplanck's Point and Stony Point taken—Capture of New Haven—Fairfield and Norwalk destroyed—Washington plans a Counter-Stroke—Storming of Stony Point—Generous Letter of Lee 170

CHAPTER XX.

Expedition against Penobscot—Night surprisal of Paulus Hook—Washington Fortifies West Point—His Style of Living there—Table at Head-Quarters—Sir Henry Clinton re-enforced—Arrival of D'Estaing on the Coast of Georgia—Plans in Consequence—The French Minister at Washington's Highland House—Letter to Lafayette—D'Estaing co-operates with Lincoln—Repulsed at Savannah—Washington re-enforces Lincoln—Goes into Winter Quarters—Sir Henry Clinton sends an Expedition to the South 179

CHAPTER XXI.

Sufferings of the Army at Morristown—Rigorous Winter—Derangement of the Currency—Confusion in the Commissariat—Impressment of Supplies—Patriotic Conduct of the People of New Jersey—The Bay of New York frozen over—Lord Stirling's Expedition against Staten Island—Knyphausen's Incursion into the Jerseys—Caldwell's Church at Elizabethtown burnt—Character of its Pastor—Foray into Westchester County—Burning of Young's House in the Valley of the Neperan 189

CHAPTER XXII.

Arnold in Command of Philadelphia—Unpopular Measures—Arnold's Style of Living—His Schemes and Speculations—His Collisions with the Executive Council—His Land Project—Charges sent against him to Congress—His Address to the Public—Charges referred to Court-Martial—His Marriage—Verdict of the Court-Martial—Arnold reprimanded—Obtains leave of Absence from the Army, 194

CHAPTER XXIII.

South Carolina threatened—Its Condition and Population—Stormy Voyage of Sir Henry Clinton—Loss of Horses—Character of Lieutenant-Colonel Tarleton—Fleet arrives at Tybee—Sir Henry Clinton advances upon Charleston—Lincoln prepares for Defence—Commodore Whipple—Governor Rutledge—Embodiments of Washington—Embarkation of British Troops at New York—Washington sends De Kalb with Re-enforcements—His Hopeful Letter to Steuben 203

Evils of Congre
Washi
Troops
— Arne
Anzlon
con wri

Siege of march Washi Monk's
capitula
embarks

Knyphaus
Caldwell
The Jer

Washington
of Phila
French F
New York
of Quart

North Caro
— Sumter
vance of — Flight
ton's Opi

Treason of André—
the Huda

Interview discover Highland
Traitor—