3. A noble heritage is thine,
So grand and fair and free;
A fertile land, where he who toils
Shall well rewarded be,
And he who joys in nature's charms,
Exulting, here may roam
'Mid scenes of grandeur, which adorn
My own Canadian home.

5. And doubt not should a foeman's hand
Be armed to strike at thee,
Thy trumpet call throughout the land
Need scarce repeated be!
As bravely as on Queenston's Heights,
Or as at Lundy's Lane,
Thy sons will battle for thy rights
And freedom's cause maintain.

4. Shall not the race that tread thy plains.
Spurn all that would enslave?
Or they who battle with thy tides—
Shall not that race be brave?
Shall not Niagara's mighty voice
Inspire to actions high?
'Twere easy such a land to love,
Or for her glory die.

6. Did kindly heaven afford to me
The choice where I would dwell,
Fair Canada that choice should be,
The land I love so well
I love thy hills and valleys wide,
Thy waters' flash and foam;
(Slowly and softly)
May God in love o'er thee preside,
My own Canadian home!
