

Whence 'tis manifest, that Port-Royal belonged to Acadia, as Quebek did to Canada; otherwise a place in, or for Acadia, was not ceded by the treaty, which yet suggests there was.

P. 86. after Acadia, line 4. from the bottom, read, conformable to the words of the act of cession, made by Louis XIV. in May, 1713. as also to the twelfth article of the treaty of Utrecht, as cited, and rendered, by the Commissaries. Mem. 4th October, 1751. p. 3.
