of the United States, made of American Cloth, manufactured expressly for the purpose.

The "Pericla," a newly invented Waterproof Silk Garment, well adapted for general use by officers in the Army and Navy, and travellers in warm climates, can be easily carried in the pocket or hat, and guaranteed to be impervious to the heaviest rain, and to resist the hottest sun.

IN THE ENGLISH DEPARTMENT.

FROM T. & W. CARR,

Patent Waterproof, Double and Treble Milled, Dress and Beaver, Stout Fust and various Elastic Cloths, manufactured by Messrs. CARRS, of Twerton, together with a case containing specimens of the various processes of manufacture, from the fleece to the finished Cloth; also a piece of Waterproof Beaver Cloth, cut from one of the pieces, with water poured on it to show the Waterproof quality of their goods, and that woollen goods may be rendered impervious to rain of many hours' duration, although perfectly free from perspiration, as the same cloth may be breathed through, similar to an ordinary respirator.

FROM W. & I. BANGSTER,

The well known Umbrella and Parasol Manufacturer, of London, "As their Agents," are containing a very elegant assortment of Umbrellas and Parasols, made on "Fox's" Patent Parasol Frames stronger and lighter than any other offered to the public.

Parties desirous of IMPORTING articles of Foreign Manufacture direct, will be pleased to address their orders to

Messrs. BARLOW, PAYNE & CO.,

GENERAL MERCHANTS AND COMMISSION AGENTS,

Colman Street, London.

Whose appointment enables them to offer every facility.

F. DERBY & COMPANY, having the good fortune to enjoy the confidence of the Manufacturers, their Agents and the Public, desire to repeat their cordial acknowledgments for the extraordinary favor which has thus far attended their efforts, and to renew their assurances that every exertion will be made to increase still further their claims upon the public for greater favor and support.
