

14. (1) The Directors may from time to time make such calls on capital stock of the Company as they may deem necessary for the conduct of the business of the Company.

(2) The Directors shall have the power to cancel the stock of any shareholder who refuses or neglects after sixty days notice to pay any calls regularly payable upon the share or shares held by such member, and any calls previously paid shall upon such cancellation be forfeited to the company.

15. At the close of every year's operations the Directors may declare a dividend out of any profit made by the company, but such dividend shall not exceed 6 % of any one year. Any profits over and above the said 6 % shall, after an amount which the Directors shall deem sufficient has been set aside for Reserve Fund, be paid to the members in such manner as the Directors shall determine.

16. The Company may pay any officer a salary, and the amount of same shall be determined by the Directors.

17. (1) All apples grown by any shareholder of the Company shall be handed over to the Manager of the Company's packing house for packing and disposal.

(2) Such apples shall be delivered at such time as directed by the Manager, in prime condition for grading, packing and shipping.

(3) The Company may receive from any member any fruit or produce other than apples for sale or commission.

(4) Directors may refuse to accept for shipment fruit not grown by members.

(5) All apples left after packing known as "culls," shall be the property of the Company, and the amount realized from their sale shall be applied to the expenses of the company incurred in carrying on its business.

(6) The grading and packing of apples shall be under the supervision of officials of the United Fruit Companies of N. S. Ltd., appointed for that purpose.

18. No member shall make sale otherwise than through the Company except by the permission of the Management, of any apples grown by him. He may, however, give away any fruit he has grown.

19. (1) Any shareholder who shall dispose of any apples grown by him, otherwise than through the Company, shall pay the Company ten cents per barrel for all such apples so disposed of, which may be retained by the Company from any monies of his in the Company's possession, or collected from him in such manner as the Directors shall determine, and shall be deprived from all
