GANDGUE FAVORITE WINS

Vilhaila Beats Jimmy Lane in Steeplechase -- Highflown and Hamilton Score at Long Price.

Highflown, long shot, landed the opening event cleverly. Going soon in a nice position behind the pace, Peak sent her out coming home and she had no trouble in passing Baby Wolf, the public choice, second, Cold Spring, the extreme outsider, third.

and winning from the Hastings colt by a nose. John Reardon, the emphatic favorite, was third all alone.

Animus, outsider, made the page to

Mr. Hedrick was there again with the helter, claiming Baby Wolf out of the first race for $950, and boosting My Gal up to $1000 in the last race, when Owner Pritchard let her go.

The weather was threatening and cool for the second day of the O. J. C. Thus the attendance was somewhat below the standard, but those present were amply repaid by at least awo sensational finishes. Vilhalla landed one of the greatest steeple-chases ever seen at Woodbine Fark and Ganogue won the Seagram Highweight Handicap by virtue of Guy Burns' marvelous finish. z-Field. *-Added starters. Time 1.15 3-5. Start good. Won easily. Place driving. Winner ch.f., 3 by Peep o Day-Raindrop. Trained by R. E. Watkins. Value to winner, 3440. Highflown in close pursuit of pace to stretch turn; closed with a rush on butside and was going away at end. Baby Wolf showed keen speed in the going, but faltered last sixteenth. Cold Spring off slow; gained steadily, and was wearing leaders down. Rye Straw and Fort Worth both stopped and were probably short. Winner entered for 550; no bid. Overweights: Lady Orimar 4, Rye Straw 2, Jim L. 2. Scratched: Apple Prince, Simcoe, Sal Volatile, Wrap, Manheimer. Mutuels paid : Highflown, straight $52.90, place $8.20, show $4.40; Baby Wolf, place $2.40, show $2.60; Cold Spring, show $11.80.

J. W. Schorr proved the winning owner with two firsts, and he started the favorite in the last race, but was only third. Burns was the successful jockey, piloting the winners home in the second and sixth races. 9 SECOND FLACE-Six furlongs, purse $500, for two-year-olds, Canadian-owned Bwana Tumbo won the second all round. Off in front, the colt reveled, in the mud, and Burns just sat still for a four lengths' win. Flower Girl was second and Sunlike third in that order the six furlongs. The winner carried the money. *-Coupled. Time 1.15.8-5. Start poor. Won easily, Place same. Winner by Bryn Mawr-Affect. Trained by W. F. Presgrave. Value to winner, $35. Bwana Tumbo a good mudder; drew away into an easy lead on back stretch and increased his advantage last quarter. Flower Girl swerved over to inside in home stretch. Sunlike ran an even race and may improve. Ondramon was lame going to the post; he was aa good as left. Overweight: Pekisko 2.

Mutuels paid: Bwana Tumbo, straight $3, place $2.20, show $2.20; Flower Girl, place $2.50, show $2.40; Sunlike, show $5.90.

Madrigalian and Spellbound were pseemakers in turn in the third, but Edda drove up the stretch and had a marth margin where they pay off. Bob is and Nightfall, the also rans, were besten off. Again the winner had the public support. The calculators were twisted and payed out $79.50 on Madrigalian for a few minutes instead of the correct $54.50. 10 THIRD RACE-One mile, purse $40, for all ages : Madrigalian

Hamilton was a good two-year-old yesterday and never was headed in the Frontenac Purse, regardless of his meagre support. Fanchette was closest attendant most of the journey, but could not last. Tactics, favorite, getting the place, and Flamma third. Sadie Shapiro, second choice, was first of the also rans. Time 1.41.2-5. Start good. Won driving. Place same. Winner b.f., 3, by Puryear D.—Break o' Day. Trained by J. F. Schorr. Value to winner, $30. Edda in close pursuit of leaders to stretch turn, where she came to the outside; finished stoutly, and was going away under a drive at end. Madrigalian used up racing Spellbound into submission. Latter hung on with good courage all the way. Bob R. stumbled repeatedly when break came. Scratched: Amalf.

Mutuels paid: Edda straight $4.90, place $3.70, show $2.70; Madrigalian, place $21.80, show $4.30; Spellbound, show $3.
