Rugs from the Orient

The Simpson Store is setting new precedents in its carpet section. A new elegance in its machine woven carpets and rugs, both domestic and imported, has made the store a mecca for those who are in search of carpetings that have artistic merit, and a range that will afford correct patterns and colorings in their carefully furnished homes.

The Latest Achievement is the new stock of the Oriental section. Every rug bought conforms not only to the highest standards in design and coloring, but—what is of the first importance—every rug is of absolutely reliable quality, and prices have been kept low. How low you can judge from the following brief descriptions:

In the carpet-size Rugs, from 4.0 x 9.0 for dens or halls, up to large sizes such as 13.0 x 16.0 for living rooms, dining rooms or drawing rooms, will be found a delightful variety of different types. Beautiful Kirmanshahs, full of intricate and interesting detail in design, and with soft and delicate blendings of soft rose, tans, dull greens and blues. Exquisite Chinese designs, the colors in these soft yellow and blue combinations, peculiarly suited to the present-day feeling in decoration for eighteenth century English treatment. Rich Persian blues, with antique copper reds and brownish shades in perfect gradation of color. The small pieces, ranging from 3.0 x 4.0, in the best types of Saraks, Kirmanshahs, Senna, Bokhara, Daghestans, etc. Very inexpensive and yet good specimens of Mousouls, Hamadans, Carabags, etc. Prices range $3.75, $12, $15, $17.50, $22.50, $27.50 and up. Sizes from 3.0 by 4.0 up to 16.0 by 20.0.

Special attention should be given to the stock of beautiful India Rugs, which come in a variety of color and design; light, delicate greens, rose, tans and blues, for drawing rooms, bedrooms, etc.

Bright, warm, rich colors, for dens, dining rooms, libraries, etc.

Beautiful Indian Embroideries on white felt, show rare designs worked in soft pastel shades of green, pink, blue, etc. Charming and uncommon Rugs for many purposes. Sizes about 7.0 x 4.0. Each $5.95

COURT CLERKS WANT MORE FEES

Deputation From County and Surrogate Courts Waited on Board of County Judges Yesterday.

While the board of county judges were in session yesterday at the parliament buildings, they were waited on by a deputation from the division court clerks' association and other similar organizations in the judicial service, asking for increases and changes in the tariff of fees for clerks and solicitors in the county and surrogate courts. The deputation consisted of about a dozen members of these associations and included Mr. Williams, president of the registrars, and J. A. V. Preston, Orangeville, secretary of the county court clerks' association. The claim is that there are many extra duties now performed by clerks, registrars, etc., for which no remuneration is paid at all and the deputation want to have the County and Surrogate Courts Act amended. By this means new fees can be allowed for special work and higher fees for the work being done in routine from day to day.

The board of county judges have the authority to grant the requests of the deputation if they see fit to do so. The matter is not left to the attorney-general to decide.

SHOULD REPORT NEGLECT CASES

J. J. Kelso Says His Department Has Machinery to Deal With Cruelty to Children.

J. J. Kelso, provincial superintendent of the department of neglected children, stated yesterday afternoon that Ontario, he had often rescued children who were actually and intentionally being starved to death by their parents.

However, Mr. Kelso pointed out that cases of this kind were exceptional and isolated. Mr. Kelso said, during his lecture, may have dwelt particularly on one or two instances of wilful neglect on the part of parents, but these cases were not plentiful.

"There are instances of this kind revealed from time to time," added Mr. Kelso. "But there are 63 children in the province who are neglected, and such cases of neglect or cruelty should be reported to the nearest local society at once, when they are discovered. It is the duty of the parent and the machinery to deal with them."

ARCHBISHOP HOWLEY REPLIES

To the Accusations of Mr. R. A. Reid Concerning Mr. Morine.

Editor World: A copy of a Canadian paper has been forwarded to me containing a letter from Mr. R. A. Reid, formerly secretary to Mr. A. E. Morine, K.C., etc., while the latter gentleman was in Newfoundland, some eight or ten years ago. The greater part of the letter concerns only very vile, personal abuse of me, which requires no answer. There are, however, some statements therein which are intended to deceive the people of Canada, and injure my character, and which I consider deserving of an answer.

The principal accusation contained in the letter when stripped of its insulting and violent verbiage, seems to be that I tried illegally to obtain a loan of "some thousands" from the "public treasury" for the purposes of the Roman Catholic Church, that I offered as security certain church properties which Mr. Morine (who was then financial secretary of the society) declared to be valuable, and refused to grant me the loan.

The accusation is utterly absurd and unfounded. But even if it were true that I tried illegally to obtain a loan of some thousands from the "public treasury," it is really to be regretted that I did not do so. It would have been a very great crime, but it would have been a crime of the public treasury, not of the Roman Catholic Church. The accusation is a statement to deceive a serious answer. If I mistake not, it would be quite an act of parliament at least, legislative sanction to take money from the "public treasury."

In order to try and discover what is really meant by this accusation, it will be necessary to explain a little concerning our monetary affairs here in Newfoundland. The principal object of the bank is to receive and disburse the small holdings of the people. It is also one of the legitimate powers of the bank to advance on good security loans to individuals, firms, corporations, etc., and to accommodate the people by charging a moderate rate of interest.

I came to St. John's as bishop in February, 1898. This was not long after the "bank crash," December, 1894. I found the whole financial system in a state of confusion and unrest. Several of the large mercantile establishments had collapsed, and all the public institutions, clubs, etc., were in a state of panic and weighed down with debt. The bank was in a state of financial straits, and the public institutions, clubs, etc., were in a state of financial straits, and the public institutions, clubs, etc., were in a state of financial straits.

NATURE'S CURE FOR NERVOUS AFFECTIONS

So many people are suffering from nervousness or ailments caused by nervousness and try to cure these troubles by dishing out medicine for the last three months, and I do not need it either. I have no more headaches or distress after eating or going to bed. I am now in a state of perfect health. I can eat anything in the line of food with no bad effect. Yours truly, Angus McKensie.

If you feel tired and stupid, with no ambition to get out and hustle; if you have spells of despondency and a desire to give up the fight, you need new energy. The race is to the strong. Show me a failure and I'll show you a weakness. Lack of courage, strength and ambition, three essentials to the making of a successful man and woman, showing how it is won.

what is conscientiously believed to be for the welfare of the country. I had no "interview" or personal intercourse with Mr. Morine during the whole course of these proceedings, so that the graphic and dramatic account of the "interview" between me and Mr. Morine, given by Mr. Reid, is purely imaginary.

I may say that the legislative grant offered by the Bond Government and denied by Morine, was promptly given by succeeding governments to all denominations, i.e., Roman Catholics, Church of England, Methodists, etc.
Our orphanage has gone on most successfully and in a flourishing condition having now over one hundred

Mr. Reid says that "100 thousands upon thousands of dollars" in connection with the business of Mr. E. M.
Jackman. This is an absolute falsehood.
I never had any financial or monetary dealings of any kind with Mr. Jackman, not even to the amount of one cent. I never lent him any money nor did he ever ask me for any.
No doubt Mr. Jackman will know how to deal with this matter.
