World Office, Monday Evening, Dec. 31. Monday Evening, Dec. 31.

Only a morning session of the two Toonto mining exchanges was held to day, he business during the morning was small, he strong to upset sentiment and some olders suspicious of the situation are sacriolders suspicious of the situation are sacriolders the stocks, pending the appearance is ome kind of support. The markets are reed entirely of argument and nothing
the moment counts so much as the quotiprices. Brokers are conservatively adsing purchases of the shipping and divising purchases of the shipping and divied prices. Brokers are conservatively advising purchases of the shipping and dividend paying properties, but this is having little influence in preventing liquidation. The volume of business has fallen away to a great extent, and no increase is anticipated until prices show a firmer undertone. The majority of the purchases to-day were from those who have confidence in the future of values and who recognize that the first turn in outside sentiment will mean a sharp rise in quotations.

In answer to Hamilton correspondent, the Minnehaha referred to in The World of Dec. 26, was not the Minnehaha of California. The shares spoken of are purely speculative and no intrinsic value can at the moment be placed upon them. They likely refer to some American flotation and are practically valueless.—Editor. Strength of Red Rock,

Strength of Red Rock,

The feature of the mining shares to day was the strength of Red Rock, which sold in New York at $1.25 per share. There are all kinds of stories affoat regarding this stock but so far nothing tangible has come to the surface, altho rumors of a squeeze about the middle of January continue to circulate in some quarters. The strength of Red Rock to-day in the face of a generally weak mining list lends considerable color to this story.

Irrespective of a contemplated squeeze, the Red Rock property appears to be a good one, based upon the stories of well-known mining experts, and Toronto capitalists who have visited the property. A large gang of men are already getting out the smelter.

Officials of the Red Rock claim that they have discovered a rich vein running 60 per cent. silver—this vein appears to be a continuation of the same vein that has hade Green-Meehan celebrated, a claim that lies next to Red Rock.

The Right Hon. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, G.C.M.G., P.C., Premier of Canada, Ottawa, Ont.:

Sir.—On behalf of the Toronto Board that less next to Red Rock.

Sir.—On behalf of the Toronto Board that less next to Red Rock.

Won't Board the Special. mining securities. A member of the firm said to The World this afternoon: "Here is an opportunity when everybody should get about defore the train for 'higher prices' starts. It is due to leave next week and many speculataors and investors belated with 'cold feet' will be at the depot about half an hour after the special for 'higher prices' has pulled out; but this is always the way with a speculating public—they wait until the 'special is sailing out on the main line 'Ob-mile-au-hour gat'.

half an hour after the special for "higher prices" has pulled out; but this is always the way with a speculating public—they wit until the "special is sailing out on the main line" (D-mille-an-hour gait, then they want to get aboard, and the only consciption they get is a little spell from the conductor, who yells back, "Get aboard the next special for 'Higher prices,' just before it pulls out." You people are like a grat many more—when the opportunity presents itself you won't get aboard. My advice to you is don't be like the five foolish ringins; look a day or two ahead and prepare yourself for the bargain counter." This wag of a broker tells the story pretty well—people will not buy stocks when they are quiet—they wait until a 10-point rise has transphred then everybody steps in.

of these 83 left their homes, knowing is under way. Since the stock started on its sensational decline a number of the present directors have liquidated their holdings and these have passed to other hands. At least four new directors will enter the board before the close of January. A meeting of the Nipissing Mines Company will be held next week, but it is not likely any changes will be appropried at their homes, knowing of these 83 left their homes, knowing of the vith this disease, and yet were allowed to pass inspection at the immigrant headquarters at Quebec.

Laxity of Inspection. Perhaps it is not necessary to give in detail further cases. Many more could be given, all going to show the laxity of immigrant inspection at this side of the Atlantic, and something much worse than this is at the other side. The evidence would seem to show that this country is simply being mad dumping ground for those afflicted with tuberculosis and other diseases. There is reason to believe that many hospitals thruout the country can tell of newly arrived immigrants, who are residents within their walls, because afflicted, if not with consumption (because no other hospitals outside of these above named will receive con-College, Toronto.

"It has been found that the boundary ine, as laid down in the United States hydrographic chart, differs widely from the British admiralty chart. They both derive their authority from the treaty of Ghent (1814). The map on file with the treaty is so inaccurate that no two persons probably would transfer the boundary line thereon to a modern chart in the same way. It is, in fact, worthless for its purpose." orthless for its purpose."
Reference is made to the podisputes that have arisen between American fishermen and the Canadian in-
