meet and wrestle with fate. Cervera let fate pursue him. But here the dissimilarity ends. They are both doomed men.

The best proof that Hardy is a doomed man is furnished by his own actions. His summoning the Legislature at the dog days, on three weeks' notice, is proof enough if other evidence were wanting. Nothing can explain this extraordinary and startling summons, except the desperation of the Government. The ship is about sinking. This summons is but a raft by means of which the decadents hope to save themseives. It is a last resort. of those women already in reasonably robust health, and the killing off of their weaker sisters.

Athletics will make a naturally strong woman stronger and healthier; they will make a naturally weak, sickly woman weaker and more sickly, and if indulged in to excess, may result fatally.

A woman who suffers from weakness and disease of the delicate and important organs distinctly feminine, cannot hope to recover her general health through athletics, so long as she remains locally weak. A woman suffering in this way is unfitted to bear the strain of athletics just as much as she is unfitted to bear the duties and burdens of wifehood and motherhood. There is a sure, safe, speedy and permanent cure for all disorders of this description. It acts directly on the organs concerned in wifehood and maternity, making them strong and healthy and vigorous. It soothes pain, allays inflammation, heals ulceration and tones the nerves. It fits a woman to indulge in, and be benefited by, athletics. All good medicine stores sell it.

"Your valuable 'Pavorite Prescription' cured me of female weakness and a catarrhal disconders from the lining membrane of the special parts." writes Mrs. T. H. Parker, of Brooklyn.
