Ruth Supplants Cobb as Most Valuable Player

Nothing in baseball these days is attracting so much attention among baseball fans as the phenomenal work of "Babe" Ruth of the Red Sox. As his home run record mounts, the interest becomes more keen, and it is safe to say that Ruth is today the most talked of man in baseball. When news came over the wire to Ebbett's Field the other day that the Boston boy had clocked his fourth home run in as many days, "Uncle" Wilbert Robinson of the Brooklyn team said:

"Ruth today is the most valuable man in the game to any team, and things considered, he's more valuable than Cobb."

"If this young man ever plays through an entire season he is apt to set a long-distance clouting record that has never been dreamed of. There is no man in the game today who hits the ball with the force that this erstwhile star pitcher puts in his drives."

Ruth is evidently all over his recent illness. If he is kept in the Red Sox outfield the rest of the season, as now seems likely he is apt to come through and lead the American League in batting. Even though he does not play in as many games as Speaker and Stiller, he stands a great chance of outdistancing them in point of percentage and matter of extra bases.

"Babe" Ruth was a marvelous pitcher—one of the best left-handers that ever threw a baseball. He is now in the stock," says Manager Robinson.

BOXING IN PALESTINE

London Sportman.—Several well-known boxers took part in a tournament held in Palestine in the month of May, among them being Alf. Wye, the ex-maiden, and a champion, champion. He met Alf Wye in a fifteen-round contest, but proved so much the better man that he administered the "K. O." in the sixth round.

Iwin won the first race at Louisville on Friday. He justified his moniker all right.

"Seltzer shows unexpected strength," sizzles a tennis headline. Was his first name Bromo?

"Maple Leafs fall before Hustlers," says another sport writer. Rather early for leaves to fall.

Baseball dopesters have given up all hope for the Southern League. They have given it until June 28 to live—and then, at the very least, they will remain green, however. Probably the ex-maiden, the best pitcher in the Canadian League, ever tried out more greenhorns. Its epitaph shall be:

Here lies the Southern League; and a pass by Schuyler for the Sox against Schellenbach of the Sox at Chicago on Sunday.

One of the surest signs that baseball is regaining its prestige is the fact that about seven million dollars have been donated by the American people during the past two weeks.

An expert says that Chicago is the class of the American League. Yet the official standing:

The Jersey City team object to being called the Gows. They prefer being called the Seakers. According to official figures they have yet failed to sting anybody except themselves. Their season has been literally milked by other international League nines.

"Cows" is certainly more appropriate. As we go to press, Detroit is still in last place. The Tigers are making an inglorious attempt to hang on to their favorite position. They are being assailed by a equal number of fans during the past two weeks.

Too bad Wagner did not drive from Alps. Hans Makes Longest Drive of Course Off Four-Inch Tee.

Barney Dreyfuss always delights in recounting the tale of Hans Wagner's first golfing experience. Some years ago, while the Pirates were training in Hot Springs, Dreyfuss, "Boss" of the enthusiastic golfers tried to get Wagner interested in their game. But for a long time Wagner would not enthrall. At last, however, he succeeded in luring him to the links and armed him with a driver and a your ball.

"Honus grabbed a handful of earth and built himself a huge mound, on which he placed the ball. Just as he was about to drive off, one of the ex-farmers, hurried over and handed him a golf club. 'You never can accomplish anything with such a high mound for your ball,' said the farmer. 'You must level it up.'"

"Wagner surveyed the new mound and said, 'I think I like the higher one better, and at once he built a second mound, and then a third, and so on, until he had built a series of mounds, each higher than the last. And then, while the veteran golfers were laughing at him, he drove a ball, and made a hole, and won the prize for the longest drive ever recorded on Hot Springs golf course."

CHICAGO STRENGTHEN HOLD ON FIRST PLACE BY DEFEATING N. YORK

Ninth Straight Game Goes to Cubs by Ninth-Inning Rally.

NEW YORK, June 11.—Chicago won its ninth straight game here today, defeating New York by a score of 5 to 3. It was a see-saw game, won by Chicago in the ninth inning after New York had taken the lead in the preceding inning. A young local pitcher, after holding Chicago to one hit in five innings, weakened in the ninth, when the Cubs scored three runs on singles by Mann and Killifer and doubles by Merkle and Deal.

Several military units were present and were supplied with baseball equipment. Score: R. H. E. Chicago.....0 0 2 0 0 0 0 3—5 7 1 New York.....1 0 0 1 0 0 0 3—3 8 2

PIRATES TRIM BRAVES IN 16 INNINGS AND MOVE UP

BOSTON, June 11.—Pittsburgh took Boston's place at the bottom of the first division today by defeating the home team by a score of 3 to 2 in 16 innings. Scorer was his harder than Hearn, but the visiting pitcher was invincible in the pinches and allowed but one hit in the last eight innings.

The winning run resulted from singles by Mollwitz and McKenchie, Schmidt's sacrifice, an intentional pass to Sanders which filled the bases, and Caton's squeeze play bunt on which Mollwitz scored.

After Wickland, had singled and Smith had walked in the sixth, Ketcher's triple scored Boston's two runs. Score: R. H. E. Pittsburgh.....0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1—3 1 2 Boston.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—2 11 2

RUNNING SORES FACE NOTHING BUT ECZEMA

No rest day or night for those afflicted with that terrible skin disease, eczema, or, as it is often called, salt rheum.

With its unbearable burning, itching, torturing, day and night, relief is gladly welcomed.

There is no remedy like Burdock Blood Bitters for giving relief to such sufferers; no other remedy has done, or can do so much for those who are almost driven to distraction with the terrible torture. Apply it externally and internally, taking out the itching, itching, and burning, and promotes a healthy healing.

Take it internally, and it gets at the source of the disease in the blood, and completely and permanently drives it out of the system.

Miss Mary V. Chambers, Anagnone, N. B., writes: "I used Burdock Blood Bitters for eczema. I had it when I was an infant, but it left me. Two years ago it came back. I used doctors' medicine, but it did good only while I used it. At last my face was nothing but a running sore. I saw in the paper what B. B. did for people, I took it, and today I am free from that terrible disease."

ST. MARKS AND ASKINS WIN IN CHURCH LEAGUE

Langford's good hurling was responsible for the triumph handed by the St. Marks team of the Inter-Church League to the Centennials last night. The score was 5 to 2. The Centennials, was fast but wild. He passed several of the St. Marks boys, who scored later on him.

Askin Street took the measure of Adelaide, thereby assuming the league leadership.

It was a loose game of ball, the score being 19 to 7 for the Elks.

Rain interfered at the end of the game. Jack Laekie got four safeties out of five times at the plate—one home run, one triple and two doubles. R. Baker also came across with a home run. The batteries were: Adelaide, R. Craig and Peglar; Askin, R. Baker and M. George. Jackson umpired the game.

CAST-OFF HORSE IS WINNER OF HARLEM STAKES AT BELMONT

Airmen Is Easy Victor Over Loft's Arrah-Go-On.

NEW YORK, June 12.—C. P. Winfrey's Airmen, a cast-off of the Cochrane stable, showed that he was a greatly improved horse yesterday, when he galloped in an easy winner of the Harlem Stakes, which was the feature of the Belmont Park. He had plenty in reserve when he finished four lengths in front of George Loft's Arrah-Go-On. J. Howard Lewis, who trains steep-chasers for the Wideners, introduced Airmen to metropolitan racing, and he was in the hands of a good driver, which qualified over the sticks in Maryland.

Nutmeg was rated along and took the fence the second time around. Nutmeg and Square Dealer rushed up to the leader, and then, joining in, they had five
