TORONTO MAN WINS THE

VICTORY POEM CONTEST TORONTO, Nov. 1.—More than 1,160 poems were received and judged by Rev. M. W. Wallace in the Victory Loan competition. The first prize went to George H. Maitland, of Toronto, whose contribution, entitled "Then Grudge Ye Not," was considered to possess the greatest merit. Entries were received from every province in the Dominion, from the United Kingdom, and from many of the American states.

A contribution by Mrs. Mary F Secord, 199 Brant avenue, Brantford, Ont., received honorable mention.

THORNDALE, Nov. 1.—The town-ship board of health met on Thursday afternoon and decided to keep all the schools, churches and public buildings closed for another week. Although no serious cases of Spanish influenza have developed in this district the authorities believe that it is better to prevent public gatherings until all danger has passed.

A new consignment of books has been received by Thorndale Public Library and will be ready for circulation when the library is reopened. The library is also being renovated.

WIGTORY LOAN TOTAL

TORONTO, Nov. 1.—With a grand total for the Dominion of $118,404,150, Canada has done itself proud in the first-five days of the Victory Loan campaign. Last year at the end of the library is reopened. The library is also being renovated.

FUNERAL OF DR. J. MACDIARMID. HENSALL, Nov. 1.—The funeral of Dr. J. Macdiarmid, which was a private one owing to the influenza epidemic, was held Saturday afternoon last, and the pailbearers were brother Massons and Oddfellows, Masons and Rebekah lodges. Rev. Mr. McConnell of Carmel conducted a short service, in which he paid a high tribute to the worth of Dr. Maediarmid, who, he sald, had never refused to answer any call no matter what the condition of the roads or weather, and with whom honor and a desire to do good counted more than money. The remains were interred in Hensall Union Cemetery. Cemetery.

GRANTED ALIMONY.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed With Sulphur It Darkens So Naturally Nobody Can Tell.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea Sulphur for darkening grey, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest ad-

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage. GIRLS!
