See Page 10 for Simpson's Complete List of Offerings for Tuesday

FINTEREST TO TOMEN

TING CAR.

FOR FLO-

ARE Co., Leading

WILL BE

street (op-

RES SKIN

ICTORIA-er, Valuator

QUEEN-

eet west.

VICTORIA nel Hawes.

OWNER

GUITAR.

ge-street, ed7tf

PABLES

RCHITECT. Main 4508.

RTGAGE-

ITY, FARM

toria-street,

CIVE BU-

a sacrifice.

ASSENGER

OUT, WILL ns. full lea-on, $450. Box

RY, POST cards, nge. ed?

DISEASES

keys, guar 8; square

SOLUTELY

any cylin-

PAID FOR

EW MORE

RAISING

-street. ed.

GROUND

Tor-

SALE. POWER, 4 Now for a little space the golden moon Unclouded reigns; the ruddy stars grow pale And glitter ghost-wise thru her lus-The fir's green pride the cedar's droop

The flaming maple's and the aspen's All sink to shade and silence, where Colls thru in dread; the lakes in sil-

Sleep and need not the watch-cry of

Across the fallow clearings, drenched

And light along the pearly spider-The troll-king dances with his jocund

Weaves in the wind the lace-work of Three Weddings to 3000 Girls.

The Woman's Home Companion nas established a reputation for beautiful illustrations, and the February Valentine number is even richer than usual. C. Allan Gilbert's great new painting, "David Copperfield and Agnes," is re-produced in color. There is a full page portrait of Lincoln at the age of fif-teen, and the Valentine cover is paintteen, and the Valentine cover is painted by Howard Chandler Christy. The fiction in this Valentine magazine is Fridays. by such popular authors as Florence Morse Kingsley, Juliet Wilbor Tomp-kins, Irving Bacheller and Mary Hast-

Anna Steese Richardson, one of the most distinguished authorities in Am- third Wednesday of each month as erica on the working-girl problem, in "A Substitute for Matrimony" pre-

in philanthropy and is now a charity

The welfare secretary was waxing truly enthusiastic. "You see, our girls do things.'

Everything except marry. Why don't they marry "
"Because they don't want to," snapped the secretary. "Any man would be glad to get one of them, of course."

In Society.

Mrs. W. S. Hodgens, 114 Farnhamavenue, will receive on Thursday, Feb.

Mrs. T. E. Milburn, 23 Crescent-road, receives on Tuesday for the last time

Mrs. R. S. Williams and Mrs. W. Moore will receive to-day and next Mrs. W. J. Luther-Anderson, 38 Dupont-street, will receive on Friday for the first time this season. Mrs. A. D. Fisher, 4 Roxborough-street, will receive to-day and to-mor-row afternoon, and not again this seareary, instead of the second, and not again this season, Mrs. George Grant of Lewiston will be with Mrs. Jordan.

day next, and on the second Thursday March, and not again this season. Mrs. J. Corcoran of 111 Gore Vale-

Mrs. Biddell Davis, May-square, will not receive in February, but on the second and third Mondays in March, as usual.

Sensual, to the things eternal, which does not ear heard, neither hath entered into the heart of man the things which God hath in reservation for them that love Him supremely.—1 Cor. ii., 9.

Mrs. A. Russell Clarke of 93 Isabellastreet will receive to-day and next Monday, and not again this season.

Mrs. A. Robertson (Josephine Ben-son) will receive for the first time at West Toronto, will not receive on the second Wednesday of either February or March, but will be at home on the

The King's Daughter - The Bride - The Lamb's Wife -Gorgeous in Gold and White Embroidery.

Mrs. J. Corcoran of 111 Gore V tleavenue will not receive to-morrow, but on the second Tuesday of next month.

Mrs. H. N. Winter, 34 Walker-avenue will not receive till the second a nestatory in March.

Mrs. J. W. Thompson, 188 Dunn-avenue, will receive on the fourth Friday in the second of the church carries its own important lesson. But surely none, will receive on the fourth friday during the season.

The Misses Whatnough will receive for the first time in their new home, 98 Boustead-avenue, on Thursday afternoon, and following that, on Monday during the season.

The monthly open meeting of the Household Economic Association has been postponed from to-morrow to Tuesday, Feb. 16, on account of the milds soft the charge season and the least of the carely land in the throne, and soft the charge season.

Mrs. J. Corcoran of 111 Gore V tleft and His select tourch is scriptinally and dear relationship between Christ and His select church is scriptinally between Christ and His select church is scriptinally broaded figures represent the graces of the spirit, mekness, gentleness, part brodered figures represent the graces of the spirit, mekness, gentleness, part of the spirit, mekness, gentleness, part brodered figures represent the graces of the spirit, mekness, gentleness, part brodered figures represent the graces of the spirit, mekness, gentleness, part brodered figures represent the graces of the spirit, mekness, gentleness, part brodered figures represent the graces of the spirit, mekness, gentleness, part brodered figures represent the graces of the captain and his solders, the significance. The end the curled figures represent the graces of the captain and his schept, when the brodered figures represent the graces of the captain and his schept, when the brodered figures represent the graces of the captain and his schept, but never of God will accomplish this. She brodered figures represent the graces of the captain and his schept, but never of God will accomplish this. She brodered figures represent the grace upremely -1 Cor. ii., 9. puted to us has stamped upon it the The preceding verses of the Psalm gracious designs or patterns which The preceding verses of the Psalm describe the grandeur of the heavenly Bridegroom—that in His earthly life He was fairer than the children of men; that Divine grace was poured from His lips, and that the Father, because of His faithfuiness, greatly blessed and exalted Him. Next it tells of the inauguration of His millennial kingdom at His second advent, when as the mighty one, He will come forth in glory and majesty, conquering Satan, sin and death. We are assured that prosperity will attend and truth, more and replacements of the brightening as the mighty one and truth, more and replacements of the present the present the present in the present the present the present in the present the present the present in the present the present the present the present in the present the present the present the present in the present Mrs. C. M. Jones, 96 Fairview-avenue, in glory and majesty, conquering Sat-West Toronto, will not receive on the prosperity will attend and truth, of the outline must be carefully mercy and righteousness will be established in the earth, even tho it be clean, spotless. Who is sufficient for accomplished by a great time of trouthese things? Surely only those truly ble. His arrows of Divine truth are represented as piercing all of His opponents to the heart, even as the apostle's words in the day of Pentecost for His promised second coming to

Mrs. R. S. Williams and Mrs. Moore will receive to-day and the following Monday.

The Rosedale Travel Club will not meet this evening.

The Rosedale Travel Club will not meet this evening.

Mrs. Bruce Riordan goes to Montreal to-day to visit Mrs. Fitzhugh.

Mrs. Ambrose Small will not receive to-day, as she is leaving to attend the carnival at Montreal.

Murdered and Burned.

LONDON, Feb. 7.—A special despatch from Santiago, Chile, says that the body of the chancellor of the Grandle Will not spatch from Santiago, Chile, says that the body of the chancellor of the Grandle Will nove and to-day to visit Mrs. Fitzhugh.

Murdered and Burned.

LONDON, Feb. 7.—A special despatch from Santiago, Chile, says that the body of the chancellor of the Grandle Will nove and to-day to visit with the body of the chancellor of the Grandle Will nove and to-day to visit with the will constitute the virgins, here carrival at Montreal.

Murdered and Burned.

LONDON, Feb. 7.—A special despatch from Santiago, Chile, says that the body of the chancellor of the Grandle Will nove and to-day to visit with the will constitute the virgins, here carrival at Montreal to-day, with the will constitute the virgins, here carrival at Montreal to-day, with the will constitute the virgins, here carrival at Montreal to-day, with the will constitute the virgins, here carrival at Montreal to-day, with the will constitute the virgins, here carrival at Montreal to-day, with the will constitute the virgins, here carrival at Montreal the body of the chancellor of the Grandle Will the will constitute the virgins, here carrival at Montreal the will not receive to-day, with the will constitute the virgins, here carrival at Montreal the will not receive to-day, with the will constitute the virgins, here carrival at Montreal the will not receive to-day with the will not receive to-day for the day with the will not receive to-day for the first of the grandle William More.

Murdered and Burned.

LONDON, Feb. 7.—A special despectation of the Grandle William More.

spatch from sandago, Chie, says that the body of the chancellor of the German legation was recovered to-day from the ruins of the burned legation building there. Investigation snowed that the house apparently had been broken into. Medical experts declare that murder had been committed, as the official's skull was split open.

Five Firemen Hurf.

MELROSE, Mass., Feb. 7—One of the two large car barns used by the Boston and Northern Street Railway Company situated in Melrose Highlands was burned, with a total loss of $75,000. Five firemen were slightly hurr by a falling wall.

It is almost too avorable witness as the more favorable witness and extent plane, far above angels, principalities and powers—to the Dipole strains and powers—to the Dipole strains and strain to the day of the more favorable witness of perfect righteousness will be a fall witness. How so? Because that glorious dress of, perfect righteousness will be they wise. How so? Because that glorious dress of, perfect righteousness will be they so? Because that glorious dress of, perfect righteousness will be they so? Because that glorious dress of, perfect righteousness will be they so? Because that glorious dress of, perfect righteousness will be they so? Because that glorious dress of, perfect righteousness will be they so? Because that glorious dress of, perfect righteousness will be those who have earnest. In deferso only to those who have earnest. In defer principalities and powers-to the Di Mrs. George L. Marks (nee Linfield)
Will receive with Mrs. Peyton on Friday of each month, at 180 St. Patrick-street.

Arrests His Own Wife.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 7.—Patroloman Freitage arrested his own wife last night when she and a neighbor engaged in a quarrel. He marched heth women to the police station and come partakers of the divine return." tures tell us is best illustrated in a "little child"—"nothing doubting." Says St. Paul, "He who hath freely given us Christ, shall He not with Him freely give us all things?"

St. John assents, saying, "Beloved, now are we the sons of God (even in our imperfect condition), but it does not yet appear what we shall be (how glorious): but we know that when He shall appear we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is." (1 John-iii., 2.) To be with Him, to share His glory, to be like Him, who is the ex-press image of the Father's person, is the highest possible conception we can have of the glorious things which God hath in reservation for them that love

Look again at the queen and her glorious apparel. Notice the pure linen clean and white, resentative of her purity and righteousness. Remember that she was once of the world, her members "children of wrath, even as others." Remember that by faith she accepted the merit of her Redeemer's sacrifice and thus she was reckonedly covered with His robe of righteousness, which the world saw not, but which the heavenly Father regarded, ite-member that it was because of that robe covering her natural blemishes that she was permitted to consecrate herself and to become the espoused virgin of her annointed redeemer and prospectively His joint-heir in the kingdom. How wonderful these steps of grace! Looking but a little way into the future, we behold her clothed, not with an imputed robe of righteousness, but with her own robe of righteous-ness. The imputed one was hers to wear resurrection. Then and there perfected,

Ah! now we see that our poor, bung-ling efforts are valuable in the Lord's sight, not because of what they really attain to, but because of the heart condition which they attest. With this encouraging thought, dear friends, let us continue weekly, daily, hourly o work upon our robe painstakingly, o seek to cultivate those high ideals of Lewiston will be with Mrs. Jordan.

The king's daughter is all glorious it became actual. On the spirit plane within; her clothing is of wrought she became righteous, without spot, without spot, without blemish, a suitable companion and joint-heir for the great King of Glory.

To seek to cultivate those high ideals of truth and grace and love, which our hearts approve, and which we see the country of the spirit plane within; her clothing is of wrought without blemish, a suitable companion and joint-heir for the great King of Glory.

To seek to cultivate those high ideals of truth and grace and love, which our hearts approve, and which we see the country is approved and our heavenly for the great King of Glory.

Our text poetically and pictorially draws our attention to one of those beautiful figures by which the close beautiful figures by which the close and dear relationship between Christ must have its significance. The emand makes us rather dissatisfied with our own standards. Come with us. Home, pleasure, art, wealth, popularity, all lend their influence towards worldliness and the cultivation of earthly hopes and prospects. Our great earthly hopes and prospects our great hopes and prospects of the cultivation of earthly hopes and prospects our great hopes and prospects of the cultivation of the church towards the cultivation of the church towards and prospects our great hopes and prospects of the church towards the cultivation of the church towards the control of the church towards and the cultivation of the church towards the control of the church towards the church towards the control of the church towards the control of the church towards t hate you, ye know that it hath hated me before it hated you. If we were of the world, the world would love its own; but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you." (John xv., 18-19.) She hearkens further and hears the same search of the world.

life, at the very most, is brief and that in the Lord's providence, under cur call, we have an opportunity to sacrifice it and thus to gain the highest of all blessings in the eternal life of the future. The "foolish virgins" do not hearken enough to the voice from heaven.

with the pencil and thought a few minutes when the specified a most interesting program, "Three," she announced finally.

Three, she announced finally.

Three girls out of three thousand married in a year! That store is no like interesting the conditions which aroused a sympathy of his interesting program, which aroused a sympathy that culminated married in a year! That store is no like interesting program, "Why we have the smartest wits in the country in this store. Do 'Why, we have the smartest wits in the country in this store. Do 'Why, we have the smartest wits in the country in this store. Do 'Why, we have the smartest wits in the country in this store. Do 'Why, we have the smartest wits in the country in this store. Do 'Why, we have the smartest wits in the country in this store. Do 'Why, we have the smartest with sand which aroused a sympathy that culminated in the country in this store. Do 'Why, we have the smartest wits in the country in this store. Do 'Why, we have the smartest with sand being made buyer for the unit is now head of the country in this store. Do 'Why, we have the smartest with sand being made buyer for the unit is now head of the country in this store. Do 'Why, we have the smartest with sand being made buyer for the unit is now head of the country in this store. Do 'Why, we have the smartest with sand way of the country in this store. Do 'Why, we have the smartest with sand way of the country in this store. Do 'Why, we have the smartest with sand way of the country in this store. Do 'Why, we have the smartest with sand way of the country in this store. Do 'Ny, don't you hear about Miss. Eithis of the country in this store. Do 'Ny, don't you hear about the country in the store in Pittsburg, She is in the country in this store. Do 'Ny, don't you hear about the country in the store in Pittsburg, She is in the country in this store. Do 'Ny, don't you hear about the country in the store in Pittsburg, She is in the country in the store in Pittsburg way to self-second the country in the store God, hath annointed Thee with the oil of gladness above Thy fellows."

The picture is in the future. At the present time the church is not the queen, nor the bride, not in the glorious garments; she is merely the "espoused virgin," called to brideship. At present she is in her body of humiliation, or "vile body," according to the statement of our common version. But sne shall be "changed" in the first resurrection, and thereafter be the "glorious body" the glorious bride. (Phil. iii., 21). Now she is a mixed company of the statement of the graces of the holy of the graces of the graces of the holy of the graces of the graces of the gr

Public Amusements

No announcement of the present the atrical season has been received with greater interest than that of the engagement of Lew Fields and his origi-nal company of one hundred persons, who will present "The Girl Behind the Counter" at the Princess Theatre this evening. Mr. Fields and "The Girl Behind the Counter" played for one en-tire season at the Lew Fields Theatre In New York, breaking every record of the metropolis in this type of entertain andra Theatre to-night to greet the distinguished romantic actor, James K. Hackett, as Prince Rudolph in Sir Anthony Hope's fascinating romantic play, "The Prisoner of Zenda." [Mr. Hackett's engagement will be a most triumphant to say that nowhere on earth is that

ART GALLERY IS ROBBED

Toronto Boy in Search of Mother is a widow, but in good circumstances. will assume his mother's name of Hus

Harder to Avoid a Welcome than to Find a Service for Worship of God in Toronto

"The church that Christ is pleased / with has a big door," said Byron H. Stauffer, in his Sunday morning serbrilliant audience at the Royal Alex- mon at Bond-street Church, "and the

"There is a deal of sophistry that needs to be unmasked about the attiinfluences. What shall we do? As the espoused one listens she hears the voice of her Lord saying, "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in Him." (1 John ii., 15.) She hearkens again and hears Him say, "If the world me before it hated world that a that hated world, ye know that it hath hated world, hate you, ye know that it hath hated

Ed Lee Wrothe, assisted by Richie W. Craig and Rotert Deming, a trio of comedians equal to anything on the stage in their line to-day, will be seen in the big production of "Me. Him and I" at the Grand this week, opening with a special matinee to-day. Wrothe, as Conn Conn, an Irishman; Craig, as a German, and Deming, as a tramp called Dusty Dawson, are the three fragments of a disbanded show. The company is a large one, and the songs will meet with most generous applause.

Trom the thoughtless.

"Let me say that the church is the freest institution in Toronto to-day. The lodge demands dues, and rightly so. I must have the password for which I paid $40 initiation fee. The Club's suppers are paid for by its mentions. The theatre asks an admission fee. The Massey Hall meetlings ou Sunday evenings undoubtedly do good, but even there the collection plate is passed at the door. But at the door of every Toronto church, admission on Sunday is absolutely free. The man every Toronto church, admission of Sunday is absolutely free. The ma The announcement that the management of the Princess Theatre has secured Madame Nazimova for an engage can allow the collection plate, which is ment of three days, beginning next passed in the pews, to go by unnotice to those who have followed the succing that a stranger seeks, we can have the unchurched. Not content with one service, many of us are multiplying features of sociability. There are after meetings and receptions and socials stranger in Toronto has a far harder task in avoiding the welcome of the churches than in finding a place where he can worship God.

"I say these things because some people, thru an ignorance of the fact, really believe that the church is not filling its place, when the fact is that the wayfaring man is surfeited with opportunities to go somewhere and be

THE DICKENS FELLOWSHIP

Four hundred members and friends / ttended the Dickens Fellowship conresazione at the normal school on saturay evening. The event was in selebration of the 97th anniversary of the birth of Charles Dickens. The official members were red and gold badges inscrited with the quotation. "This is my birthday, Pip." Among the most prominent present were: E. S. Willamson, president; Ald. J. W. Bengough, F. M. Bell-Smith, Miss J. Oran, Miss M. Pennell, secretary; Miss M. Bengough, Miss Foster and Messrs. Ledman, Cain, Draper, C. Burns and Church. cuted by LaBelle Minna and eight lithe- Church.

Musicians Meet.

After much discussion on the part of the Musicians' Protective Association if the Labor Temple yesterday afternoon, it was decided not to raise the union rates for musical performances.

The People's Service.

The Grand Opera, House was crowdeded alst night when J. M. Wilkinson gave the thrilling sacred drama, "Ben in thur," in picture and story. The musical value of the very sweetly "Come Unto Me," and Fred Watson.

"Abide With Me." and Fred Watson.

"With Farnham will follow Mr. Hackett at the Royal Alexandra, presenting the some Salome girls.

Church.

The annual report from the parent society in London, England, was presented. In reference to the Toronto branch, it said: "The two new Canadian branches at Hamilton and Ottawa have splendidly, followed the example in the closed during the performance of each better than 1.45. to allow for all being compared the provide themselves with those for more than one concert should see that they provide themselves with those for "Abide With Me." and Fred Watson.

"Abide With Me." and Fred Watson.

"Will Farnham will follow Mr. Hackett at the Royal Alexandra, presenting the some Salome girls.

The first concert of the Mendelssonn the Society in London, England, was presented. In reference to the Toronto branch, it said: "The two new Canadian branches at Hamilton and Ottawa have splendidly, followed the example and the doors will be closed during the performance of each better than 1.45. to allow for all being compared the performance of each better than 1.45. to allow for all being compared the performance of each the provide themselves with those for more than one concert should see that the year of the provide themselves with those for more than one concert should see that the year of the provide themselves with those for more than one concert should see that the year of the provide themselves with those for the provide themselves with those for the fellowship. He had a hand in the sence of his excellency the governor-general, who has arranged his eng The annual report from the parent at the Royal Alexandra, presenting the strong drama, "The Renegade." It is a Liebler & Co. production. The following contributed to the pro-Liebler & Co. production.

Nat Wills the cleverest impersonator of the stage hobo, heads the fine bill at Shea's this week. The bill includes the Four Fords in their great dancing act; Pred Hawley & Co., the Nichols Sisters; Oscar Lorraine, the protean violinist; the artistic and spectacular production. "A Night With the Poets," and the kinetograph.

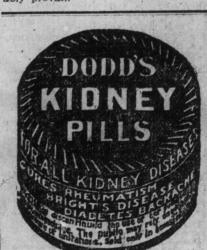

The following contributed to the program: Owen Snilly, in Dickensian numbers; Miss Mae Dickenson, Ernie Seitz, Conductor Zeigler and his orchestra. President E. S. Williamson was chairman. Buffet refreshments were served in the gymnasium.

R. G. Knowles, "the humorous American traveler," will lecture for the fellowship here in March.

CANADA AND THE TREATY.

LONDON, Feb. 7-(C.A.P.)-The Sun-Valuable Painting Cut From Frame in New York Library.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—Mystery surrounds the theft of "Mother and Child," a valuable paiting by Antoine Nevertheless Crewe's telegraph in the Canada. Child," a valuable paiting by Antoine Nevertheless Crewe's telegram in vin-Emile Plassan, from the Robert L. dication of the colonial office might Stuart Gallery, in the Lenox branch have been more tactful if the people of the New York Public Library. Fifthof the New York Public Library. Fifthavenue and Seventieth-street Friday.
The painting, which is a panel nine inches long and seven inches wide, was cut from its gold frame as it hung on the wall at the end of an alcove in the northeast wing of the building. In reporting the theft to the police, Wilberforce Eames, the librarian, said he believed the picture was stolen between

City or Town.....

Address to "Baby Contest Editor" The Toronto Sunday World.

JAMES K. HACKETT, up to the time of her change from earthly to spiritual nature in the first / Night in "The Posoner of Zenda."