

HALIFAX WAS UNDER WAY AGAIN THE WEEK OPENS GLOOMILY FOR JOHN BULL.

Halifax Gave the Mounted Police and Cowboys a Great Send-Off Saturday Afternoon.

CITY GORGEOUSLY BEDECKED

Farewells Said Amid Tears and Cheers—Warm Remarks of Lieut.-Governor Daly.

Halifax, Jan. 27.—The Mounted Police and cowboys left at 2 o'clock to-day on the transport Pomeranian and were given a grand send-off. From the armory, thru the streets to the point of embarkation, the march of the men was triumphant. Flags flew from many house-tops, from high buildings were suspended hundreds of strings of flags, almost every shop window along the line of march was embellished with gaily painted and lithographed representations of the triumphs of British arms in former years.

The War Office does not give any idea of the casualties in taking and holding the Spion Kop, but a report from the Boer head-quarters near Leeuwarden, via General Marquies, says that 1,000 British dead were left on the battlefield. This number is thought to include the wounded.

Another Lot of Casualties Issued by the War Office—Two Killed, 10 Wounded at Renberg.

London, Jan. 28.—The War Office yesterday issued a list of casualties. This includes two killed, six severely wounded and four slightly wounded at Renberg on Jan. 25, and four deaths from disease.

Boers Taken by Surprise When Woodgate's Forces Climbed the Hill and Won the Western Crest.

Spearman's Camp, Friday, Jan. 26.—About 2 o'clock on the morning of Jan. 26 (Wednesday), when heavy clouds rested upon the tops of the mountain, the Boer position, Tabanyama, was stormed by the British infantry under General Woodgate.

THE NEWS IN LONDON.

It was 3 o'clock when Buller's Long Despatch was Displayed—Losses Were Heavy.

London, Jan. 28.—During the morning and the earlier part of the afternoon a placard, bearing the words "No news," hung in the iron railing in front of the War Office, and the shivering statistics who stood guard on Pall Mall in the rain and sleet had the district all to themselves.

Did Buller Have Fever? The report also said that General Buller had been down with fever, but had recovered.
