DEWART AND CORPORTIONS Jos. P. Downey Speaks of Toron

Hamilton Railway Bill. Thomas Crawford, M.L.A., presided at the big Conservative rally in Western Y.M.C.A. Hall last night. After Edmund Bristol had spoken Joseph Patrick' Downey, M.L.A., of Guelph, took the platform. In the case Guelph, took the platform. In the case of the Toronto & Hamilton Railway bill. Mayor Urquhart, City Counsel Fullerton, Ald. J. J. Ward and other Liberals had testified to the services of the city members on that occasion, when H. H. Dewart endeavored to rou the city of rights very dear to it.

"You will remember the Gamey case." said the speaker. "There were outgrowths and sidelights on that case." The Callaghan trial demonstrated that thru their servile agent, H. H. Dewart, the Ontario government had robbed stecitizens of their privileges as jurymen and prostituted the name of King Edward in partisan proceedings.

J. J. Foy, M.L.A.. Claude Macdonell, E. F. Clarke, J. W. St. John, Hon. G. E. Foster and A. E. Kemp were the other speakers.

FOR MR. MACLEAN.

A meeting in the interests of W. F. Maclean was held last night at the residence of Frank Baby, Jane-street, West York. Over forty were present. Mr. Maclean gave an address and organization work was becun. Among those attending were Wm Smith, Frank Baby, Jas Ashman, Frank Cornish, Henry Campbell, William Leadbeater, George Lovell, George Daniels. William Coe, Angus Price, Henry Russell, Thos Graham, William Shannon, Fred Osler, Edward Vaughan, William Ashman, Arthur Ashman, C E Bennett.

St. Paul's Hall could mot hold all who wanted to cheer Foster last night.
The feature was the way the candidate's reference to Dundonald's entry to Ladysmith was received, the cheering being deafening and many leaping to their feet and waving their arms in approval.

Miss Millett's Recital.

A large audience greeted Miss Elleen MP.
lett at her first recital in Association Hall last evening. The beautiful soprano voice which has made her such a favorite and won her so, much notice was displayed in a number of selections. Miss Millett was presented with several floral tributes. J.
M. Sherlock, Frank Blachford and Miss Grace Lillian Carter were assisting artists.
