PLAYS AND PLAYERS.

Bandmann Opera Company Was the Local Attraction This Week.

NOTED ACTOR COMING

J. H. Stoddard to Retire—Digby Bell as Mr. Pipp—Lawrence D'Orsay Gets it Again—Ticket Speculators Bitten.

That the public appreciates a change was clearly proven by the large patronage which has been accorded to the Bandmann Dallas Opera Company at the opera house all this week. Fed upon straight dramatic attractions or nonessential light comedy the theatre goes soon become tired. They lost interest in matters theatrical and demanded a change of diet. This change was provided by the Bandmann Company and the public was quick to take advantage of it. The Bandmann company's performance, moreover, were very good and they merited the large audience and press notices they received. Mr. Cole, the comedian, is as funny as any of them although some of the bills presented this week gave him comparatively little scope. Miss Morra who is an old favorite here has lost none of her versatility while Miss Corless jumped at once into the affections of her audience. She is a dainty little woman with a bewitching pair of eyes and she well knows how to use them to effect. Also she has a sweet voice and can dance fetchingly. The new baritone, D. B. O'Connor, has a voice of sweetness and good range and he took advantage of every opportunity that came his way. The company will play three nights next week and doubtless the good patronage will be continued.

Clara Thropp has replaced Zelma Ralston at Le Salle Theatre, Chicago.

Jas. J. Corbett is to shortly play an eight weeks' engagement in London.

Dessie Howard, who was such a great favorite when here with the Baker Opera Company, is with Paul Gilmore's Mummy and The Humming Bird, and has received high praise from the Denver press.

Geo. W. Gallagher, who has been

Ex-Lieutenant United States Navy and Ex-Lieutenant Confederate Navy Uses and Recommends Pe-ru-na.

Pe-ru-na Is a Safeguard Against the Ills Incident to Inclement Weather.

Catarrh of the Head Which Affected Hearing Cured by Pe-ru-na.
Mr. J. Emil Tangany, No. 223 John St., Quebec, is Secretary of the Jacques Curling Club of Quebec, one of the leading sporting clubs in this city. The members are composed of young men of the best families. He writes:
"Last winter I caught a severe cold which developed into a severe case of catarrh of the head, affecting my hearing especially. My eyes ran, my system seemed to be generally clogged up. I was advised by a club friend to try Pe-ru-na, and did so at once. To my delight I found a change set in for the better within three days, and in eight days I was entirely well. Pe-ru-na, I am glad to say, has cured me of catarrh of the head, and several of my friends have been cured of catarrh entirely where Pe-ru-na was used."—Adolph Koehler.

Nothing Better Than Pe-ru-na for Catarrh of the Head.
C. P. Dorr, Hotel Johnson, Washington, D. C., Congressman from West Virginia, writes:
"I can cheerfully recommend Pe-ru-na to anyone who wants a safe and permanent cure for catarrh. For throat, lung and catarrhal trouble there is nothing better than Pe-ru-na."—C. P. Dorr.

Colds Lead to Chronic Catarrh.
A common cold is acute catarrh, which quickly becomes chronic catarrh if allowed to remain.

Every cold snap leaves in its trail thousands of cases of catarrh, many of whom for want of an effective remedy will suffer from this disease the rest of their lives.

Is there anything that can be done to prevent this?

In the first place, Pe-ru-na used at the proper time will prevent taking cold. In the second place, Pe-ru-na will cure a cold in from two to five days.

Again, Pe-ru-na will cure catarrh quickly in the first stages, and finally Pe-ru-na will also cure chronic catarrh, if used properly and persistently.

Pe-ru-na kept in the house and property need not therefore be put out as a safeguard against the ailments which result from sudden cold waves, but it is a sure remedy for this class of ailments.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Pe-ru-na, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Pe-ru-na can be purchased at any first-class drug store for $1.00 per bottle. Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanatorium, Columbus, Ohio.

every performance. Immediately the management discovered it, they secured four megaphone men, placed two in front of the theatre and two at the next corners of the street, one at each place, so that everybody might receive warning the tickets purchased on the sidewalk would not be received at the door.

The spectators got a ride of some of their holdings by moving further up the street, but toward the last of the week the theatre and accepted the generous offer of the management to redeem their tickets at purchase value and quit.

The tickets were then sold to the regular players.

"A Wyoming Round-Up" is to be the title of a folio of portraits soon to be put on the market by a Chicago artist. While the title might suggest cattle, the subjects are cowboys.

The artist conceived the idea while "The Virginian" company was playing at the theatre. His inspiration came after learning of the many requests for photographs of the cast.

Mr. Farrum, Mr. Frank Campbell, Guy Bates Post, Frank Munsey, Bennett Mason and Frank Nelson, in their picturesque cowboy trappings, posed for the artist, and the result is said to be full of Western atmosphere as its title indicates.

While Lawrence D'Orsay, who is now touring the West in "The Earl of Pawtucket," was playing in Chicago, he dropped into the local barber shop to get a shave. After the tonsorial artist had completed his ministrations and D'Orsay had left the chair, a traveling man, the next in turn, appropriated it, and turning to the man with the razor, said:

"Say, do you know who that was you just shaved?"

"No, sah," replied the barber. "I dunno."

"Well," replied the drummer, "that is Lawrence D'Orsay, the Earl of Pawtucket."

"Is that so, sah? Well, well! I've often seen him on de stage, but dis is de first time I ever had de pleasure of meeting him socially!"

composed by the late Rev. S. N. Sedgwick, curate of the parish, has been produced at Leatherhead. This year it is entitled "The Policeman's Lot," and is based on the dictum of Mr. W. S. Gilbert. The entire cast is made up of the previous occupants of the workmen of Leatherhead.

The most celebrated character in the repertoire of Edward Terry, the celebrated English actor, is that of Dick Dinsley in "Sweet Lavender."

Mr. Terry has played this part over four thousand times throughout the United Kingdom and its colonial possessions. This is a record only equaled in this country by Joseph Jefferson in Rip Van Winkle and James O'Neill in Monte Christo.

Mr. Terry is generally considered the dean of English actors, as he has been an actor for over forty-one years. Mr. Terry will appear in the York Theatre at a date within the next six weeks.

MUNDAY KNIGHT. WEDDED IN WOODSTOCK.
That Town Is Also Discussing the Question of Assessment.

Woodstock, N. B., Feb. 9.—At the home of the bride's brother-in-law, Fred W. Manuel, yesterday Miss Alma Smith was married to Burns Cummings. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. Allen Goff, D. A., in the presence of the immediate relatives. After the ceremony luncheon was served and Mr. and Mrs. Cummings left on the express for St. John. They plan to return next week and reside in Woodstock. The bride was the recipient of much attention and presents. Many friends were present at the station to express their delight in the event and to wish them many years of happy wedded life.

The chief topic under discussion this morning was whether or not Woodstock is in a position to stand the proposed tax on property. The town council has decided to stand the proposed tax on property. The assessors had no right by law, as has been done for many years, to place a two-third vote on all property. The contention, endorsed by the majority of ratepayers, is that the full value of property should be assessed, and the percentage would necessarily drop, consequently the taxes would not be raised.

The following programme was carried out:
Selection, St. Joseph's orchestra; solo, P. O'Rourke; recitation, Norman L. McGlotha; solo, Wm. Fynes; selection, St. Peter's orchestra; solo, John Barry; selection, St. Joseph's orchestra; solo, A. Delaney, and solo and step dance, A. Delaney, and solo and step dancing by Leo O'Hara. The playing of the two orchestras proved one of the most enjoyable features.

President Dvorak highly thanked the St. Joseph's Society for the evening's entertainment, and after a final selection by St. Joseph's orchestra, the singing of God Save the King closed the programme. Refreshments were served during the evening.
