SPORT NEWS GLEANED FROM WORLD'S CENTRES

HERE'S A TALE OF BASEBALL OF 1880 WHEN IMPERIALS BEAT NATIONALS

Account of Deciding Game of Series on the Bar- rack Green.

St. John is known as a great baseball city and rivalry was as keen in the eighties when the Nationals, Shamrocks and Imperials played, as it is now. In the year 1880 the struggle for supremacy was between the Imperials, a west side aggregation of players, and the Nationals, the former winning the series and championship for that year.

The account of the game will be read with interest by many of the old time fans, who will be able to fight the battle over again. This game was played in September and was umpired by E. Pond of Boston; the scorers were F. P. Griffith for the Imperials and T. Tierney for the Nationals and the time of the game was two hours.

Following is a report of the game as published at the time:—
The decisive game of the series played this season between the Imperials of Carleton and the Nationals of this city took place on the Barrack Green yesterday afternoon. The Nationals nine was strengthened by the addition of Fleming and Warlock at the second base and short stop, respectively. When the game commenced a crowd of spectators that must have numbered at least two thousand were grouped in vast masses and swarms on all sides of the field. Hundreds of impatient spectators rooted on the fences and the earth work behind it, and all cheered lustily for their favorites as the game proceeded.

The Nationals went to bat first. Barker scored a run on a high throw and fumble by the Imperials. Warlock got to first but encountered the ball at second. Carter and Fleming went out on strikes.

Imperials—Smith and Low retired at first and Thompson went out on strikes. In the second inning Wilson, Dorman and Bell, of the Nationals, swiped the safe without effect.

Imperials—Wilson went out on strikes, first was too distant for Belyea and Kingston perished attempting to get home on Oliver's wild hit pitcher.

None of the Nationals reached first in the third. The Imperials' next turn at bat put a new look on the face of things. Steady hitting by Belyea, Oliver, Allen, Smith and Thompson, aided by numerous errors brought the score up to four.

In the next inning for the Nationals Warlock made a two base hit and trotted home on a passed ball, leaving Wilson on second. Belyea distinguished himself in this inning by catching out two players, Dorman and Carter, on strikes. Fleming flied out to Smith.

The score remained at 4-2 until the seventh inning. In this session Bell for the Nationals led off with a fly to Smith and Fleming retired at first. Assisted by extensive fumbling, Crandall and Barker rounded the diamond. The arrival of the latter, tying the game, was greeted with tremendous applause on the part of the crowd as though a great national calamity had been averted. But the Imperials went into action and placed a comprehensive damper on the enthusiasm. Oliver got to first on a grounder fumbled by Fleming, stole second and reached home on a fine hit by Noonan to left. Allen hit first and followed Noonan home on Smith's three bagger over first base, the latter reaching home on a passed ball. Score 8-4 in favor of Imperials.

Individual playing does not require more than a passing notice. Belyea's play behind the plate was faultless, and that of Barker in the same position scarcely inferior. The pitching on both sides was very fine. Warlock's play at short was excellent. Oliver filled first position with credit, as did likewise Fleming for the Nationals.

Following is the box score of the game:—
Imperials. O. R. P. O. A. E.

Imperials.....0 0 4 0 0 4 0 0—8
Nationals.....1 0 0 1 0 2 1 0—5

The Times is indebted to James Whipple of Carleton for this account of the game. Of the Imperials, he says, only four are still living, one of whom is "Burr" Belyea, who was the catcher for his team. Belyea was one of the first men to stand up to the bat and catch, and was so good that at one time he was given a tryout by the Boston Nationals.

Hard Hitting Marks Contests on North End Park
The Vets and Moncton split even in a double header played in the Two League at St. Peter's Park yesterday afternoon and evening. The afternoon contest was won by the Vets, 8 to 7, and the evening game by the locals by a score of 11 to 6. In the afternoon fixture Casey got away to a flying start scoring two runs in the first and four in the second, but were able to get only one more during the remaining seven innings. The Moncton team scored two runs in the second, one in the third, and in the sixth, three in the eighth and the winning tally in the ninth. Kirkpatrick was not in the best of form and was touched for eleven hits. In the evening the Vets got their eye on the ball and made thirteen hits, while their opponents secured only five. Aside from the fifth inning, when the visitors scored five runs, the game was in favor of the Vets. The box scores and summaries follow:—

How Helen Wills Won

This picture tells the complete story of how Helen Wills, 17, of California, defeated Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, seven times national women's tennis champion. That is Molla in the foreground, in mad pursuit of a ball that hit near the back line. Tennis sharp says that Helen won by keeping Molla on that back line, never allowing her to come to the net.

HEALEY FOULED BY SEARS IN HALIFAX
Halifax, Aug. 24.—Al. Sears, Boston, made a poor impression on Halifax fans tonight, and lost his bout with Nedder Healey, Maritime welterweight champion, by a foul in the sixth round. Healey was badly out of condition and appeared much heavier than Healey, although his weight was announced at 148 pounds and that of the local man, 148.

Healey was much faster than the Boston man and the latter resorted to clinches often and tied Healey up. Healey was looked on to win up to the time of the foul.

Half way through the sixth round while the two were in an exchange in Healey's corner, the latter dropped to the canvas. Referee George Latham counted nine over him. The local man rose but fell to the canvas again and the referee saw he had been fouled, and awarded him the decision. An examination by a doctor after the bout

Evening Telegram:
That love and poverty, if properly applied, will triumph over poverty and riches, was never presented more forcibly to the public by way of the cinema than through "Poor Men's Wives" with Miss Barbara La Marr playing the leading role, which was presented for the first time yesterday at the Criterion Theatre to a capacity house. "Poor Men's Wives" is a picture you cannot afford to miss.

EXPECT DOG SHOW TO BE EXCELLENT

Promoters Look for Success at Kennel Club Exhibition.

The fifteenth Annual Dog Show of the New Brunswick Kennel Club, which opens on September 3, in the Agricultural Hall at the exhibition will continue for three days and it is believed will have some of the finest specimens of canine breeds in the east. The kennel show at the Toronto Exhibition this year is not being conducted with the sanction of the Canadian Kennel Club, and owners of fine dogs, anxious to advance their pets towards the champion class are expected to send their prize winners to St. John. Entries will close the end of this week. The judge at the St. John dog show will be George Steadman Thomas, of Hamilton, Mass., now on his way out from the big shows in the Old Country, who is considered a capable judge of dog flesh on both sides of the water.

A fine array of trophies has been obtained by the New Brunswick Kennel Club and for every winner in the thirty breeds there will be a silver cup. Besides these trophies there will be a handsome cup donated by the president for the best dog in the show and a vice-president's cup for the best in the opposite sex. Then there will be the Governor Ganong's Challenge Trophy for the best dog or bitch bred and whelped in New Brunswick, bred and owned by a member of the New Brunswick Kennel Club; H. R. McLellan's Trophy Cup for the best Provincial Bred and a Nova Scotia Special Cup for the best dog, any breed, either sex, entered from and owned in the Province of Nova Scotia. Besides all this there will be prizes for the best dog owned and shown by a child under 12 years; the best puppy, any breed, either sex; Veteran Dog and many others—in all, giving opportunity for all kinds of dogs and all kinds of folks to show their pets and carry off the ribbons and cups.

For full particulars regarding this interesting show prospective entrants should consult the Premium List published by the New Brunswick Kennel Club, addressing their letters to C.C. Sullivan, secretary of the Show Committee, Thorne's Wharf, St. John, remembering that the entry list closes on August 24.

Saints and Vets
In Double Header
Vets vs. St. Peter's is the baseball attraction in the Two-L League at St. Peter's Park this afternoon and evening. When these teams meet fans can rest assured of a battle royal, and both games today should produce some real baseball. It is expected that Tippetts and McElroy will pitch for the Vets, while Price and King will in all probability work for St. Peter's. The first game will start at three o'clock, and the second this evening at 6.45 o'clock.

Equals State Mark.
A feature of the races at Caribou, Me., yesterday was the great performance of John R. Braden, who won the free-for-all and incidentally established a new track record of 2:08 1/2.

The Vets will have to break even if they hope to keep out of the cellar. The Trojans left this morning by automobiles for St. Stephen, where they will play two games today with the leading amateur team of that city. Kerr and Nelson were booked to pitch for the locals.

Chicago Board Head Declares Ten Years Will See Change.
Chicago, Aug. 25.—Another ten years will see the passing of the movie censor, declares Mrs. A. L. Adams, chairman of the Chicago board of motion picture censorship, who says the present-day picture director and the present-day star need little supervision in their art.

"It will not be long until such supervision is entirely superfluous," Mrs. Adams asserts. "Directors do not want to offend the public, and they have learned that the public wants clean pictures."

We know of no theme which has been used more often than this one, based upon the elusive bluebird, yet somehow it gives cinema makers an unusually fine opportunity for getting closer than is customary to nature. In this particular application it is handled deftly and cleanly, and we enjoyed it—every bit of it. Even Barbara La Marr of "Trifling Women" appeared to have been inspired by its simplicity. EXPECT DOG SHOW TO BE EXCELLENT

Promoters Look for Success at Kennel Club Exhibition.

The fifteenth Annual Dog Show of the New Brunswick Kennel Club, which opens on September 3, in the Agricultural Hall at the exhibition will continue for three days and it is believed will have some of the finest specimens of canine breeds in the east. The kennel show at the Toronto Exhibition this year is not being conducted with the sanction of the Canadian Kennel Club, and owners of fine dogs, anxious to advance their pets towards the champion class are expected to send their prize winners to St. John. Entries will close the end of this week. The judge at the St. John dog show will be George Steadman Thomas, of Hamilton, Mass., now on his way out from the big shows in the Old Country, who is considered a capable judge of dog flesh on both sides of the water.

A fine array of trophies has been obtained by the New Brunswick Kennel Club and for every winner in the thirty breeds there will be a silver cup. Besides these trophies there will be a handsome cup donated by the president for the best dog in the show and a vice-president's cup for the best in the opposite sex. Then there will be the Governor Ganong's Challenge Trophy for the best dog or bitch bred and whelped in New Brunswick, bred and owned by a member of the New Brunswick Kennel Club; H. R. McLellan's Trophy Cup for the best Provincial Bred and a Nova Scotia Special Cup for the best dog, any breed, either sex, entered from and owned in the Province of Nova Scotia. Besides all this there will be prizes for the best dog owned and shown by a child under 12 years; the best puppy, any breed, either sex; Veteran Dog and many others—in all, giving opportunity for all kinds of dogs and all kinds of folks to show their pets and carry
