Three Events Contested Yesterday, but Attendance Was Not Large.

Only a small number of spectators assembled at Moosepath Park yesterday to witness the first day's card of the meet arranged in conjunction with the exhibition. The three classes were run off in a highly efficient manner by Starter James Neill, and the judges, timers and other officials did everything in their power to make the races well worth while for those who had taken enough interest to be present. Miss Abbie Brino, owned by Iras Scott of this city, won the 2.15 class in a manner which won the admiration of all. Although the time was slow, this little pacer went out in front and stayed there in every heat. The 2.22 class was won by George Moore, three out of four heats. The finish of the third heat was one of the most thrilling of the day, Jack Volo leading the winner of the class by a scant head. In the 2.80 class Cambria won three out of four heats. The winner is a trotter, and one of the prettiest performers seen on a local track for some time.

League will be played in Fredericton today. Each team has three victories to its credit and undoubtedly a great fight will be staged to win today's fixture and secure a lead. A wire was received last night by the management of St. Peters' team announcing that Houlihan would be on hand in Fredericton today to pitch for them against the Capital team. He is an ex-blg leaguer and has been pitching for Millinocket. It is understood that the Fredericton team will have a pitcher named Whitehouse. The championship will be decided here on Saturday, after which the winners expect to arrange for a series with St. Stephen.

McIntyre is preparing for the battled to this life. He knows what Gradwell is like. It means much for Johnnie to carry off tonight's bout, for he, too, is looking for a bout with Healey in St. John. McIntyre is in perfect condition.

Groff and Paris are also shaping up well. Groff says the stiffness has left his right arm and he expects to he will be shown in Chicago theatres, it sports circles here. He appreciates that his future boxing career in Eastern Canada depends upon his showing against Paris tonight.

The judge's decision was rendered after he viewed the pictures in the exhibition room of the local censorship board. He pronounced them neither obscene nor immoral. In his decision he compared the right of free speech, the freedom of the press and the "freedom of the press and the "freedom of the press and the "freedom of the vicious left hand punch which made Healey wince several times when he met the Western boxer recently.
