

MUST GO DEEP INTO POCKETS TO PAY NEW DUTY TAXES

Unmarried Men to Contribute on Incomes of More Than $1,000 and Married Men on $2,000 or More; Special Duties on Tea, Coffee, Tobacco, Matches, Malt Beverages, Picture Films, Motor Cars and Luxuries

Ottawa, April 30.—Substantial new taxation was announced in the budget speech delivered by Hon. A. C. McLean, setting minister of finance, in the house this afternoon. Business taxes will be broadened out, while important amendments are to be made to the income tax, both of individuals and corporations.

Among new excise taxes will be heavier duties on tobacco and coffee and a duty on tea. A change will be made in the system of assessing sleeping car berths and parlor car taxes, while a special excise tax of ten per cent will be imposed on the selling value of certain luxuries.

After regretting the absence through ill health of the finance minister, Sir Thomas White, and announcing his early return to Canada, Hon. A. C. McLean dealt with the financial situation. He said for the fiscal year ending March 31 the revenue will reach when all accounts are closed, $288,000,000, exceeding the revenue of the preceding year by $26,000,000, and that of the first year of the war by $125,000,000.

Small Companies Taxed. The amendment will provide that business employing capital of $25,000 or more shall be subject to taxation, but at a lower rate.

Important amendments to the income tax act are proposed. The exemption in the case of unmarried persons is to be reduced from $1,000 to $1,000 and the rate to be two per cent.

On Larger Issues. In addition to the normal tax and super-tax, it is proposed, during the war, to increase the rate of tax on incomes in excess of $10,000.

At the last session of parliament the government introduced a bill to amend the income tax act, now four per cent, is to be increased to six per cent.

Propose to increase the excise duty on cigars from 88 to 86 per cent, and on foreign raw leaf tobacco from 20 to 18 per cent.

Changes in the customs rate of duty payable on tobacco, cigars and cigarettes corresponding to the increase in the excise tax upon these articles will be submitted.

The coffee tariff items are covered by the Ways and Means agreement, and the preferential rate for coffee from the West Indies Islands, which were parties to the agreement, must be at least ten per cent.

There is no real occasion for worrying over the loss of the kennel, as we are scrapping for it at the present time. I wish that we had men enough to go out and wallop Mr. Hun when he is out on the bill.
