Several Villages Taken By Allies

Leport, Vinly and Torcy Captured From Germans—British, French and Americans all Successful—Latter Rush Huns Off Their Feet

With the American Forces on the Marne, June 7.—(By the Associated Press) The American marines who began a second attack on the German lines late yesterday captured the village of Torcy and drove their way into Bousches, northwest of Chateau Thierry. This morning they were holding Torcy in the face of repeated counter-attacks and were pushing back the Germans through the streets of Bousches. Virtually all their objectives in this attack were attained.

BOY MISSING

Arthur Beaville of Long Wharf Has Not Been Home Since Wednesday

Fears are entertained for the life of Arthur Beaville, the twelve-year-old son of Frank Beaville of Long Wharf. The boy has been missing since school on Wednesday afternoon with nothing to indicate the cause of his disappearance. At first his parents thought that he had wandered off or run away but as two days passed with no word of him, they began to fear that he had fallen over the wharf and had been drowned.
