ON THE Maid's Afternoon Out

The ever present problem of something to eat, is really the most important for solution, and is therefore uppermost in the housewife's mind.

This state of affairs is, however, becoming a thing of the past and the maid's day out is no longer dreaded in many St. John homes.

The Test of Time Has Shown That $1.00 GAS

meets successfully the most exacting requirements of the culinary art. Cheap, Clean, Convenient, it fills a long felt want, doing away with coal stoves and stoves, keeping the kitchen clean and comfortable.

You can keep your kindling on the chimney shelf for you need nothing larger than a match to start your fire, which is ready to light at any moment—day or night.

A good oven for baking bread, cake or pastry is always possible with our gas ranges, for the heat can be easily controlled and regulated for slow, medium or quick baking and any temperature uniformly maintained as long as you need it, so that nothing can burn—thus giving to bread and cake a nice even inner texture and golden brown crust and producing equally good results in pastry.

There is no odor from the broiler which is entirely under cover, the "smudge" being carried up the chimney, and the heat is so applied that meat, poultry and fish can be cooked in this way with the loss by shrinkage reduced from 32 to 16 per cent, and all the natural strength, flavor and sweet juices of the food retained.

Nothing can boil over as the burners under the top of the range, like those in the oven and broiler, are under perfect control.

Our Select Line of Gas Stoves and Ranges Awaits your inspection. Any of these we supply for cash or on easy monthly payments. Installation is reduced to the minimum cost—10 cents a running foot, all fittings included.

MADAME SHERRY COMING TO OPERA HOUSE NEXT WEEK

Miss Alta Virginia Houston in Madame Sherry, which will be the attraction in the Opera House June 8, 9, 10.

A scene in Madame Sherry, the attraction at the Opera House starting Thursday, June 8.

George W. Lederer's name as a producer of musical pieces usually spells something near the last word in approximate perfection of production. Playgoers familiar with the manager's successes, while he held forth at the New York Casino, at a time when he controlled the fortunes of Lillian Russell, Jefferson DeAngelis, Walter Jones, David Warfield, Louis Mann, Edna May, Maybelle Gilman, Pauls, Edwards and other stars, had opportunity during that

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

"My hand to the man or woman who knows when to admit ignorance. Among a group of us the other day was a young man who, though an exceptionally ambitious and intelligent person, has not had great educational advantages. In the course of the conversation someone used the word 'deterrent' in speaking to him. 'Don't you find that rather a deterrent in your work, Mr. W?'"

A puzzled look flitted over his face. Evidently it was a new one to him. Nine men out of ten, seeing that the question plainly expected an affirmative answer, would have chanced it and said, "Yes, I do," or some similar bluff.

"He, being a one-in-ten man, hesitated but an instant, and then said frankly, 'I don't think I know just what 'deterrent' means.'"

"I don't know what the rest thought, but I'm sure for myself that I never admired him so much as at that moment."

"Of course, someone promptly defined 'deterrent,' so now he does know what it means. That's the difference between him and the other nine. They would not have known the next time the word came up and would have had to bluff again."

"By confessing his ignorance he put an end to it. By hiding theirs, they gave at a new lease of life."

"Learn to say 'I don't know,' my boy, is as useful a command, in its way, as 'Learn to say 'no.'"

"In the course of conversation things are frequently said, explanations given, references made, information conveyed that we do not fully understand the first time."

"On such occasions most of us are apt to pretend to have understood, to say, 'Oh, yes, I see,' when, like the blind man, we didn't see at all."

"That's the easiest way, of course. But for the man who wants his mind to grow, it's the wrong way. For not only does he lose the information, but he atrophies his mind muscles by not insisting that they shall grasp everything that's said."

"It seems so simple to say, 'Pardon me, but I didn't quite understand that,' and most people have enough of the diffidence, in them not to mind repeating a thing if they can feel they are instructing someone."

"It seems almost wrong to me to allow one's self to read and pass by a paragraph in a book without understanding it. It seems to me that it is cowardly and slovenly not to go back and read it until one does understand."

"You all know the old Arabian proverb: 'He who knows, and knows that he knows, is wise—follow him. He who knows, and knows not that he knows, is silly—wake him. He who knows not, and knows not that he knows not, is a fool—shun him. For the present purpose I should like to temporarily amend the last two lines of that, to: 'He who knows not, and admits that he knows not, is sensible—teach him. He who knows not, and won't admit that he knows not, is a fool—shun him.'"

A GRAND MEDICINE FOR OLD PEOPLE

"Fruit-a-tives" Restores The Health and Strength of Youth.

Grande Ligne, Que., Jan. 2nd, 1910. "I heartily recommend 'Fruit-a-tives' to who suffer from constipation and the painful consequences. I have now over 50 years of age and have for more than 10 years with constipation and Piles. I tried all kinds of medicines, but nothing cured me."

About forty years ago I received a sample of "Fruit-a-tives" tablet half a dozen. I felt that "Fruit-a-tives" were doing me good. As "Fruit-a-tives" were not sold here then, I wrote to the maker for several boxes.

After taking four boxes, I felt well—my bowels were regular—and the Piles had disappeared. N. JOUBERT.

By taking one "Fruit-a-tives" tablet half an hour before meals—or one or two at night—old people can correct all Stomach, Liver and Kidney Troubles.

"Fruit-a-tives" the famous fruit medicine is mild and gentle in action—pleasant to the taste—yet no other remedy has been found to be so effective in keeping old folks in good health.

constrated that no one better than Lederer knows how to effect stage fun—"Madame Sherry" is said to fascinate not alone by its score with its ravishing "Every Little Movement Has Meaning All Its Own," theme, but to enthrall as well by the general beauty shimmering throughout the three acts.

The scenic opportunities for this Lederer artistry are a New York gilded youth's studio, with boxes of dancing feminine guests devoted to Grecian terpsichore, the salon of a millionaire's yacht at anchor in New York Bay, and the afterdeck of the same yacht under moonlight, under full sail in the waters of Coney Island, with the yacht's feminine guests as models for the Lederer ingenuity and taste in costuming.

The conduct of every member of the cast, which term takes in the feminine chorus, is said, too, to reflect this general sense of beauty, a quality that one unconsciously appreciates listening to many of the airs of the published score of the production.

"Madame Sherry" is to be presented here in the Opera House, for four performances starting next Thursday evening, by the New American Theatre Company.

WOULD MAKE HIM CARE. Judge—"Who was it that said if he could make the songs of the people he wouldn't care who made the laws?" Muggins—"Don't know. But if he's the chap who's making the songs of the people nowadays, I'd just like to have the making of the laws a little while! That's all!"—Ten.

Woman's Power Over Man Woman's most glorious endowment is the power to awaken and hold the pure and honest love of a worthy man. When she loses it and she loves on, no one in the wide world can know the heart agony she endures. The woman who suffers from weakness and derangement of her special womanly organization soon loses the power to sway the heart of a man. Her general health suffers and she loses her good looks, her attractiveness, her amiability and her power and prestige as a woman. Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N.Y., with the assistance of his staff of able physicians, has prescribed for and cured many thousands of women. He has devised a successful remedy for woman's ailments. It is known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a positive specific for the weaknesses and disorders peculiar to women. It purifies, regulates, strengthens and heals. Medicine dealers sell it. No honest dealer will advise you to accept a substitute in order to make a little larger profit. IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG. SICK WOMEN WELL. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pills regulate and strengthen Stomach, Liver and Bowels.
