

Q. How did he come to go on there?

A. He just came and planted himself there, he came and occupied the place himself.

Q. Why did he do it?

A. I could not tell you sir,

Q. What claim did he make to the property?

A. He did not have any claim.

Q. What has he done to the property since that time?

A. He did not do a thing.

Q. Did he put in---

A. He only put a small stable there, 12 X 11.

Q. And he got the lumber or logs to build that out of what?

A. Out of his own----

Q. He put a small stable there did he? A. Yes.

Q. That is all the improvements he made there?

A. Yes, that is all.

Q. Do you know the value of the stable?

A. It is worth $4.

Q. Anything else that he put on there?

A. None that I know of. He fixed up my fathers old house.

Q. And he has been on the lot ever since?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And is he there now? A. Yes.

Commissioner-

Q. Does he take Treaty? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How old are you now, when were you born?

A. I could not tell you, I am fifty-seven.

Q. Where were you at the time the troops came up the river?

A. At my fathers

Q. Where were you at the time of the Treaty?

A. I was with my father.

Q. On this lot in question?