FIRST EDITION. CHRISTMAS TRADE.

Attractive Presents for Holiday Business.

Pieces Where All May be Satisfied no Matter How Old the Taste on Pockets the Fancy.

It is always a pleasure to visit the festive arrangements of our main store.

On Charlotte street, for his stock includes the newest and handsomest goods in his line.

Just now, however, he has some special attractions in his window, and it is a new thing in the furniture line, which took a medal at the Toronto exhibition.

In the other window are to be seen handsome oak colored rockers, ranging in price from $6.75 to $9.00 each.

A lot of beautiful upholstered chairs and conventional chairs, and some very handsome writing desks elegantly carved.

What first catches the eye is the collection of gold finished chains which have been imported direct from Paris as novelties for the holiday trade.

These chains are something entirely new in this city. They range in price from $2.25 up to $2.75. Mr. White has a special fund of writing desks suitable for presents for ladies.

They are handsomely finished and are selling very cheap. A new thing in the furniture store is a combined folding bed, mantel and bookcase or wardrobe.

This is a splendid writing desk combination which was got up by Mr. White himself, and has been patented by him.

Mr. White's stock of tables, chairs and chairs of every description is most complete, and there are many articles there which are suitable for presents.

FIRST EDITION. THE U. S. TREASURY.

FINANCIAL DRAFTS LIKELY SOON TO BE ISSUED ABOUT A DEFICIT.

The balance brought down to an abstract of the Treasury for the month of November, D. C. Dec. 17.—Another source of position, which has carried the treasury balance lower than ever before since the new form of debt statement was adopted last July.

The net cash balance, according to the statement, is $5,125,314. The deficit in the treasury balance, which is included in the balance, are $13,809,421; the subsidiary silver is $13,809,421; the silver coin is $284,770, over the dollar bars are $84,842, making a total of $27,744,044, which is practically unavailable for immediate demands.

The entire fund of available currency outside of the gold certificate is only $24,970,270, and this is not available for the 10 sub-treasuries in the leading cities of the country.

The report for this month, which has been $1,703,973, while the expenditures have amounted to $21,245,455, a deficit in 14 days of more than $4,000,000. The amount drawn for pensions has been $9,200,000, but not more than $1,000,000 more will be needed before the month is over, and it is likely to reduce the net balance still further.

The balance at the end of the month promised to be smaller than at the end of November, and that was smaller than at the end of October, and that smaller than at the end of September.
